

R04 Pensions and Retirement Planning Study Guide

Study Guide Benefits

This study guide summarises the current retirement income options. Given are the steps when a member has to use DC fund values for income purposes. The government goals of 'choice' and 'flexibility' are explained, as well as the variety of options and how to use them, ranging from income through to taking a pension all at once.

The bulk of the pension freedom changes do not apply to DC scheme benefits but DC funds only.

For others, however, this can also be rather bewildering for the choices available. These choices made are irreversible, and we have a real need for all the mechanics of all the changes.

which we have mentioned before. Mobility. With the introduction of less popular as an option in future, and mainly available and utilized a type of mobility being considered.

the same flexibility under mobility and small pots rules in terms of £10 for £100,000 can be taken as cash under rules for DC scheme users, under 'small pots' rules, for both DC and DC schemes.

People, but you may recall that we outlined some of the key rules related to the R04 year.

Now we look at the R04 year currently under review.

The government budget announced new rules under the title 'Freedom'. Under a recent Bill, from April 2015, anyone aged 55 or over will be allowed to take a pension all at once.
