Giora Shoham,1994 In The Bridge to Nothingness author Shlomo Giora Shoham explicates myth as a projection of human experience Human development dynamics according to Shoham are represented by myths and reflected in religious creeds Myths constitute projective evidence of the development of psychic processes at early orality they at once reveal and conceal their psychological content In this work Shoham deals with ideas that are common to Gnosticism Kabala and existentialism irrespective of their historical interrelationships He compares the Heideggerian notion of the thrownness of the individual into the world with the Gnostic teaching of the divine descent and incarnation the incarceration of the divine in objects and life forms All three ideologies speak of God as the spiritual core of human being Union with God is unachievable but one can achieve symbiosis with God and humanness through creativity and revelation The author s integration of psychology and mythic symbolism is stimulating The Bridge to Nothingness is filled with deep psychological and spiritual insights His portrayal of kabalistic thought is perceptive and erudite He makes use of the latest scholarship and more importantly what he says will contribute to the field and provoke discussion and debate His sensitivity to the dynamics of mystical experience enables him to see clearly its positive dimension Very little has been written on the interface between Gnosticism Kabala and psychology Shoham s work is original provocative and insightful The Bridge to Nothingness will break new ground in these studies and enrich the understanding of psychological and religious symbolism BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,Louis Herbert Gray,1928 The Secret Doctrine: Index to volumes 1-3 Helena Petrovna Blavatsky,1895 Paradise Now April D.
