Costume In Detail 1730 193:

Costume in Detail, 1968 A detailed survey of women's clothing and the changes in fashion from 1730-1930 Costume in Detail, 1730-1930 Nancy Bradfield, 1997 The Cycling City Evan Friss, 2015-11-04 Cycling has experienced a renaissance in the United States as cities around the country promote the bicycle as an alternative means of transportation. In the process, debates about the nature of bicycles, where they belong, how they should be ridden, how cities should or should not accommodate them, have played out in the media, on city streets, and in city halls. Very few people recognize, however, that these questions are more than a century old. The Cycling City is a sharp history of the bicycle's rise and fall in the late nineteenth century. In the 1890s, American cities were home to more cyclists, more cycling infrastructure, more bicycle-friendly legislation, and a richer cycling culture than anywhere else in the world. Evan Friss unearths the hidden history of the cycling city, demonstrating that diverse groups of cyclists managed to remap cities with new roads, paths, and laws, challenge social conventions, and even dream up a new urban ideal inspired by the bicycle. When cities were chaotic and filthy, bicycle advocates imagined an improved landscape in which pollution was negligible, transportation was silent and rapid, leisure spaces were democratic, and the divisions between city and country were blurred. Friss argues that when the utopian vision of a cycling city faded by the turn of the century, its death paved the way for today's car-centric cities and ended the prospect of a true American cycling city ever being built. Costume in Detail, 1997 Costume in Detail Nancy Margetts Bradfield, 1989 Dictionary Catalog of the Art and Architecture Division New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1975 Descriptive and Visual Dictionary of Objects Louise Bernard, Parks Canada, 1997 This publication provides a classified list of objects based on the object's original function and on the objects in the Parks Canada national collection of over 50,000 historic objects. This particular volume includes standardized terms in English with French equivalents for three broad categories of objects: structures, buildings, components, site features, other structure furnishings, bedding, floor coverings, furniture, household accessories, lighting devices, plumbing fixtures, temperature control devices, window or door coverings, and personal artefacts: clothing, adornment, footwear, accessories, personal gear, toilet articles. Information given for each term includes an illustration, description, other designations used for the object, Parks Canada nomenclature code, and other terms not to be confused with the entry term. Includes index of terms. Costume in Detail. Women's Dress, 1730-1930. It provides new answers to two questions: what is it about cotton that made it the paradigmatic first global commodity? And second, why did cotton industries in different parts of the world follow different paths of development Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
