Counseling Children and Adolescents in Schools Robyn S. Hess, Sandy

Magnuson, Linda Beeler, 2011-11-29 Counseling Children and Adolescents in Schools is a text and practice and application guide designed to help aspiring school psychologists and counselors gain the necessary theoretical background and skill set to work effectively with youth in schools. The dual focus on school counselors and school psychologists provides students a broader view of the different mental health professionals in the schools with an emphasis on collaboration. This interdisciplinary text can be used across pre-practica, practica, and other school-based field experiences. The Elements of Counseling Children and Adolescents Catherine P. Cook-Cottone, PhD, Linda Kane, Laura M. Anderson, PhD, Laura M. Anderson, 2014-12 Print CourseSmart Counseling Children and Adolescents Rebekah Byrd, Chad Luke, 2020-12-21 Counseling Children and Adolescents focuses on relationship building and creating a deep level of understanding of developmental attachment and brain-based information. Chapters place a clear emphasis on building strengths and developing empathy awareness and skills. By going beyond theory and offering a strengths-based attachment, neuro, and trauma-informed perspective, this text offers real-world situations and tried and true techniques for working with children and adolescents. Grounded in research and multicultural competency, the book focuses on encouragement, recognizing resiliency, and empowerment. This book is an ideal guide for counselors looking for developmentally appropriate strategies to empower children and adolescents. Neuroscience-Informed Counseling with Children and Adolescents Thomas A. Field, Michelle R. Ghoston, 2020-03-10 This innovative text is the first to illustrate how neuroscience concepts can be translated and applied to counseling with children and adolescents. Drs. Field and Ghoston discuss general principles for child and adolescent counseling before examining neurophysiological development from birth to age 18. They then provide in-session examples of neuroscience-informed approaches to behavior modification, play therapy, cognitive behavior therapy, biofeedback, neurofeedback, and therapeutic lifestyle change with diverse clients in a variety of settings. Each chapter contains knowledge and skill-building material for counselors in training, counselor educators, and practitioners in schools, hospitals, residential facilities, and outpatient clinics. Text features include learning objectives, alignment with the CACREP Standards specific to child and adolescent counseling, explanatory diagrams, reflection questions to prompt deep processing of the material, case vignettes to demonstrate how to apply neuroscience concepts to counseling work, and quiz questions to test knowledge of key concepts. In addition, the text includes an extensive neuroscience glossary. Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com. To purchase print copies, please visit the ACA <https://imis.counseling.org/store>. Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org. Counseling Children and Adolescents Jolie Ziomek-Daigle, 2017-06-26 Counseling Children and Adolescents gives students the information they need to prepare for work in both school and clinical mental health settings. Two CACREP Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs specialty areas. This text includes not only content related to developmental and counseling theories but also information on evidence-based practices across the continuum of care diagnosis and treatment of youth and current trends such as integrated care mindfulness and neuroscience Unique to this book are sections on both the instructional and behavioral Response to Intervention RtI model and PBIS examples of evidence based practices used across settings such as Student Success Skills Check Connect and trauma focused CBT and a review of common mental health related disorders most often seen in youth and treatment recommendations Ethical and legal implications are infused throughout the book as are CACREP learning outcomes Instructors using this textbook can also turn to its companion website to access test questions for each chapter
