Countering Al Qaeda In London:

Countering Al-Qaeda in London Robert Lambert, 2013 This book presents an inside account of two pioneering projects in London where Muslim community groups worked in partnership with police to reduce the influence of Al Qaeda inspired terrorism One project empowered London Muslims to remove Abu Hamza and his violent hard core supporters from Finsbury Park Mosque while the other project bolstered long term efforts by London Muslims in Brixton to challenge and reduce the influence of Al Qaeda inspired violent extremists including Abu Qatada and Abdullah el Faisal Significantly both projects pre date government funded Prevent projects and differ from them in being based on partnership trust and voluntary civic duty as opposed to payment and control The two projects serve as exemplars for future community based counter terrorism projects that recognise that the hand of central government can often be counter productive when countering the influence of Al Qaeda not least when the UK is waging war in Muslim countries Flagship Prevent projects and their backers reject this analysis and argue that the work of police in these projects was itself counter productive by empowering Muslim groups they claim are extremist or radical This book offers a comprehensive defence to these charges and concludes that success was achieved by channelling genuine and reasonable Muslim grievances about UK foreign policy in the Muslim world in ways that are familiar and acceptable to Londoners and anathema to Al Qaeda Publisher s website

Communities and Counterterrorism Basia Spalek, Douglas Weeks, 2020-06-29 This book highlights a wide range of community related counterterrorism initiatives undertaken in England Northern Ireland and Australia The book continues established scholarship in terrorism studies about the importance of considering communities when understanding responding to and preventing politically religiously and other ideologically motivated violence Terrorists are in competition with communities and sociopolitical religious movements for proactive and passive support for their causes membership and resources The book is particularly relevant in the aftermath of a series of jihadist terror attacks alongside terror acts committed by far right extremists There has been an increased emphasis upon the role of communities in combatting terrorism with Communities can defeat terrorism becoming a well known mantra This book was originally published as a special issue of Studies in Conflict Terrorism

Jihadi Terrorism and the Radicalisation Challenge Rik Coolsaet, 2016-05-06 Osama bin Laden s demise in May 2011 marked only the symbolic end of an era By the time of his killing he no longer represented the Robin Hood icon that once stirred global fascination Ten years after the 11 September 2001 attacks jihadi terrorism has largely lost its juggernaut luster It now mostly resembles a patchwork of self radicalising local groups with international contacts but without any central organisational design akin to the radical left terrorism of the 1970s and the anarchist fin de si cle terrorism This volume addresses two issues that remain largely unexplored in contemporary terrorism studies It rehabilitates the historical and comparative analysis as a way to grasp the essence of terrorism including its jihadi strand Crucial similarities with earlier forms of radicalisation and terrorism abound and differences appear generally not fundamental

Likewise the very concept of radicalisation is seldom questioned anymore Nevertheless it often lacks conceptual clarity and empirical validation Once considered a quintessential European phenomenon the United States too experiences how some of its own citizens radicalise into terrorist violence This collective work compares radicalisation in both continents and the strategies aimed at de radicalisation But it also assesses if the concept merits its reputation as the holy grail of terrorism studies The volume is aimed at an audience of decision makers law enforcement officials academia and think tanks by its combination of novel thinking practical experience and a theoretical approach      Counter-Terrorism B. Spalek,2012-05-29 This book examines community based approaches to counter terrorism through an analysis of the notions of community partnership engagement gender and religion in order to shed new light on the potential of and drawbacks to these approaches Dr Spalek stresses the need for policy makers and practitioners to reflect on the effectiveness of the initiatives that they are engaged with particularly in relation to how community targeted or community focused they are      Jihadist Terror Anthony Richards,2019-08-22 The past 18 months have seen a radical increase in incidents of jihadist terrorism within the United Kingdom from the Manchester Arena attack to the Houses of Parliament to London Bridge As a result there are renewed calls for a high level national conversation about the causes of and the responses to this particular terrorist problem This book identifies policy and research gaps from an evidence based perspective it analyses what we know what we don't know and what we need to know in relation to understanding and countering the jihadist terrorist threat It provides readers with a synthesis of the knowledge and evidence that exists on each of the key topic areas representing a distinctive and valuable resource for policymakers academics and students The contributors to the volume are leading international and national experts from both the scholarly and policy making communities who are ideally placed to comment on the question of jihadist terrorism and the future of the threat in the UK      British Propaganda and Wars of Empire Christopher Tuck,2016-04-15 Influence is a slippery concept yet one of tremendous relevance for those wishing to understand global politics From debates on the changing sources of power in the international system through to analyses of its value as an alternative to the active use of force as a policy instrument influence has become a recurrent theme in discussions of international relations and foreign policy In order to provide a better understanding of the multifaceted and shifting nature of influence this volume looks at how the British government employed various forms of pressure and persuasion to achieve its goals across the twentieth century By focusing on Britain a global actor with great power objectives but declining physical means the collection provides a wide range of case studies to assess how influence was brought to bear on a wide array of non western cultures and societies It furthermore allows for an assessment of just how effective or ineffective British efforts were at influencing non Western targets over a hundred years of operations By shedding important light on the efficacy of British efforts to sustain and advance its interests in the twentieth century the volume will be of interest not only to historians but to anyone interested in contemporary problems surrounding the operation of influence as a foreign policy tool

Countering Terrorism and Insurgency in the 21st Century James J. F. Forest, 2007 Since the dawn of the new millennium combating terrorism has become a primary focus of security professionals throughout the world This volume contributes to our understanding of the terrorist threat and how it can be defeated

A Decade of Combating Radical Ideology Muhammad Haniff Hassan, 2011 Terrorism and Counter-terrorism Thomas A. Imobighe, A. N. T. Eguavoen, 2006 Seven Africanist scholars from the African Strategic and Peace Research Group in Nigeria here address the threat of terrorism in the context of the global strategic climate The study is against the background of the altered shape of the global security equation and the devalued utility of the notion of security through state centric military preparedness They posit that failure to grasp its exact nature is leading to the spread to parts of Africa hitherto regarded as relatively safe Further the adverse socio political conditions on the continent have increased Africa's vulnerability They examine areas where the experiences of other regions are relevant providing both a regional and global context Professor Thomas Imobighe is Director of the Centre for Strategic and Development Studies at Ambrose Alli University Edo State Dr Agatha Eguavoen is Reader and Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology at Ambrose Alli University Edo State The Muslim World Book Review, 2011 Countering Terrorism in Bangladesh Farooq Sobhan, 2008 Includes papers presented at a seminar organized by the Bangladesh Enterprise Institute 23-24 December 2006 Counter-Terrorism, Aid and Civil Society Jude Howell, Jeremy Lind, 2009-09-29 This book examines the effects of the increasing securitization of aid on civil societies in the context of the shifting global politics post 9/11 The Enemy of My Enemy George Michael, 2006 In the violent world of radical extremists the enemy of my enemy is my friend This study reveals how that precept plays out in the unexpected bonding between militant Islam and the extreme right in America and Europe It provides an insightful and sane look at the possibilities for collaboration between these groups

Combating Transnational Terrorism Steven Tsang, 2009-09-23 Transnational terrorism organized and inspired by Al Qaeda is a scourge of the early 21st century It is essential that the international community should work together to eliminate it The framework with which the U S government under President George W Bush chose to confront it in the aftermath of the atrocities in New York and Washington D C on September 11 2001 was the Global War on Terror or GWOT This was an unfortunate choice as it directed the United States and other leading democratic countries to try to wage war against terrorism a method not an opponent This put the United States and its allies on a mission that could not be accomplished because method cannot be defeated in a war in the sense that an identifiable enemy can

This Month, 2012 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Counter-radicalisation in the Classroom Francesco Ragazzi, Josh Walmsley, 2020 Insights from eight grass roots projects in Council of Europe member states to address the challenges of policies to counter radicalisation in education This report offers an assessment of the effects of counter radicalisation policies in the education sector through the empirical analysis of eight grass roots projects located in schools across the member states of the Council of Europe Belgium Bosnia and Herzegovina Croatia

Germany Hungary Norway and the United Kingdom It provides a detailed insight into how such policies are experienced in practice The report covers three main areas First it offers an analysis of the legislative and political context that led to the development of counter radicalization policies as well as their challenge Second based on qualitative interviews and focus groups with project leaders students teachers educators and school managers it provides a detailed account of the very heterogeneous type of practices encapsulated by the term counter radicalisation Finally it shows that while some practices are in line with principles of human rights education and education for democratic citizenship others risk undermining fundamental rights and the autonomy of education The report concludes with some key recommendations to the Council of Europe on how to overcome these challenges

Terrorism and Counterterrorism Russell D. Howard, Reid L. Sawyer, 2004 Terrorism defined Why terrorism The new terrorism model Religion Weapons of mass destruction The threat of other forms of terrorism The challenges of terrorism Strategies and approaches to combating terrorism Organizing to fight terrorism Counter-terrorism and the Post-democratic State Jenny Hocking, Colleen Lewis, 2007 Addresses the question of whether in the context of the war on terror the national security imperative has compromised the democratic state This book investigates an aspect of contemporary counter terrorism It is intended for graduate and undergraduate students in politics public policy international relations criminology studies
