The Greatest Romance Classics of All Time is a monumental collection that showcases the breadth and depth of romantic literature spanning centuries and encapsulating a variety of literary styles. From the tragic depths of Tolstoy's explorations of love and loss to the witty and satirical amours immortalized by Jane Austen from the Gothic passions of the Brontë sisters to the modernist portrayals of love's complexities by Virginia Woolf, this anthology offers a panoramic view of the ways in which romance has been conceived and reconceived in literary history. Standout pieces include the timeless tragedy of Shakespeare's star-crossed lovers, the intricate social dances of Edith Wharton's New York, and the poignant unspoken desires in the works of E. M. Forster, highlighting the collection's range from the elation of young love to the introspection of love lost. The contributing authors, an illustrious assembly of some of literature's most revered names, bring to this collection an unmatched depth of cultural and historical contexts. The diversity of authors spanning from the dawn of modern literature with Fanny Burney to the keen observations of social conventions and individual desires by Henry James and the innovative narrative styles of F. Scott Fitzgerald, mirrors the evolution of the romance genre itself. This anthology not only aligns with major literary movements from Romanticism to Realism to Modernism but also presents a unique dialogue across cultures and epochs, showcasing the universal and evolving nature of love and human connection. This collection is an indispensable treasure for those who wish to immerse themselves in the rich legacy of romance literature. It offers readers a unique opportunity to explore love in its myriad forms, from the fiery and tumultuous to the subtle and unspoken. This anthology is not merely a celebration of romantic love but an educational voyage through the landscapes of human emotion and societal norms as expressed through romantic encounters across time. It is a must-read for those looking to understand the multifaceted nature of love, appreciate the genius of literary giants, and experience the timeless dialogue between changing societies and the enduring human heart through the lens of romance.

American Women's Regionalist Fiction Monika Elbert,Rita Bode,2021-01-04 American Women s Regionalist Fiction Mapping the Gothic seeks to redress the monolithic vision of American Gothic by analyzing the various sectional or regional attempts to Gothicize what is most claustrophobic or peculiar about local history Since women writers were often relegated to inferior status it is especially compelling to look at women from the Gothic perspective The regionalist Gothic develops along the line of difference and not unity thus emphasizing regional peculiarities or a sense of superiority in terms of regional history natural landscapes immigrant customs folk tales or idiosyncratic ways The essays study the uncanny or the haunting quality of the commonplace as Hawthorne would have it in his introduction to The House of the Seven Gables in regionalist Gothic fiction by a wide range of women writers between ca 1850 and 1930 This collection seeks to examine how if the regionalist perspective is small limited and stultifying and leads to Gothic moments or whether the intersection between local and national leads to a clash that is jarring and Gothic in nature Educational Film Magazine ,1921 Classic
