Deep Perception Jeremy Barris, 2024-08-27 Deep Perception The Direct Awareness of Individual Being and the Practice of Being Who We Are argues that direct perceptions of the being or essential character of a person thing or situation are possible These include perceptions of what integrally belongs to that being The book also argues that these perceptions are enactments and expressions of our own being While the mainstreams of both analytic and continental philosophy reject the conceivability of such a perception Jeremy Barris argues that these traditions own implicit concepts of being allow and in fact account for its meaningfulness and possibility Drawing on these implicit concepts and on Zen Daoist and some esoteric traditions Deep Perception develops an account of the nature and logic of these deep perceptions and explores the nature and method of engaging in these perceptions what is involved in living with them and their implications for various areas of our conduct Rearticulations of Reason Leila Haaparanta,2010 A Transdisciplinary, Engaged,

Phenomenological Investigation of Dwelling and Landscape Language Andrew Turk,2024-09-06 This book includes revised dissertation chapters from the author s second PhD which was awarded in 2020 by Murdoch University Australia It also includes three chapters summarising recent developments This was an innovative transdisciplinary research project using phenomenology as the over arching meta paradigm The investigation involved collaborations and literature reviews across numerous disciplines including philosophy geography ethnoecology sociology and cultural studies The book discusses three landscape language ethnophysiology case studies with Indigenous peoples in Australia and the USA It features a detailed discussion of transdisciplinarity and provides a comprehensive example of how this approach can be applied to complex dwelling relationships which people from different cultures have with specific topographic environments turning terrain into landscape It involves using phenomenology as a transdisciplinary meta paradigm and describes phenomenological methods for integrating physical and social sciences including an analysis of the worldviews of Indigenous peoples for example Manyjilyjarra Jukurrpa as Heideggerian topology International Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences ,1968 The Pluralist ,2007
