Sound Tactics Justin Eckstein, 2025-03-25 From call and response chants to the noise of pots and pans protests are often defined by their sounds In this book Justin Eckstein argues that this is not merely the result of catchy slogans it is due to sound s ability to hold those in power accountable Sound Tactics highlights how in a world grappling with the uncertainty of emergent digital practices social movements utilize the rhetorical power of sound Eckstein uses the waveform as a metaphor for the persuasive potential of sound Examining the case studies of the March for Our Lives protest Howard University s HUResist movement and the Casseroles protest in Montreal Eckstein demonstrates how changes to the immediacy intensity and immersiveness of sound can affect the power of an argument The collective use of sound in these case studies conveys the unity of the protestors in their demand for change and underlines the strength of their argument to those in power More than just the written word spoken aloud sound has unique layers of added meaning it can convey length of time demand attention and signal disapproval Eckstein s study unpacks those layers for scholars and students as well as activists interested in deploying sound for change

A Competitiveness Strategy for America United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, 1993 This document records the oral testimony and written statements of 13 U S Senators and Representatives government officials a corporate chairman and a union president on the problem of economic stagnation in the United States and the formulation of a strategy to promote greater world competitiveness Some witnesses focused on the need for better education and job training for the 20 percent of people considered illiterate in the United States whereas most witnesses focused on the lack of family supporting jobs The witnesses said that millions of middle wage jobs have disappeared leaving only a few highly skilled highly paid jobs and many part time low wage jobs without benefits Witnesses proposed creating strategies to encourage investment in manufacturing jobs in the United States such as investment credits and elimination of barriers to exporting goods Some witnesses opposed additional taxes to pay for improvements others supported them for humanitarian purposes Some were totally proponents of the free market but others said that the free market had not created jobs for the past 20 years and that some sort of government stimulus was needed A long term investment such as improvements in the infrastructure was more favored than shorter term approaches KC
