www.ablongman.com/edresources Reading and Learning Disability Estelle L. Fryburg, 1997 The primary goal of this book is to provide teachers, psychologists, physicians, and concerned professionals with an interdisciplinary view of learners and schooling by applying the current knowledge of neuropsychology and the concepts of cognitive psychology to instruction and to the assessment, evaluation, and remediation of individuals with reading, language, and writing difficulties. The author presents theoretical and experimental evidence and recommends the practical applications to classroom and clinic settings of current theory and research, describes and analyzes methods of instruction, and provides direction in the administration of diagnostic tests and the interpretation of test achievement. Theories are described and restated as they are relevant to instruction, assessment, and evaluation. The goal is to enable educators and psychologists to effectively and efficiently assist students and clients to achieve competency in literacy and academic tasks and to introduce physicians to the cognitive and affective components of schooling. This comprehensive book was written to serve as a text in graduate courses in psychology, diagnosis, and remediation of reading and writing difficulties, as well as for practical use in neuropsychological aspects of reading and learning disabilities and psychoeducational evaluation of learning problems. Resources in education, 1987-02

Complete Learning Disabilities Directory 2010 Laura Mars-Proietti, Richard Gottlieb, 2009 This is the most comprehensive directory of Programs, Services, Curriculum, Materials, Professional Meetings, Resources, Camps, Newsletters, and Support Groups for teachers, students, and families concerned with learning disabilities. This edition is distinguished by its recognition by the National Center for Learning Disabilities, as well as a Glossary of Terms. This information-packed directory includes information about Associations, Organizations, Schools, Colleges, Testing Materials, Government Agencies, Legal Resources, and much more. For quick, easy access to information, this directory contains three indexes: Entry Name Index, Subject Index, and Geographic Index. With every passing year, the field of learning disabilities attracts more attention, and the network of caring, committed, and knowledgeable professionals grows every day. This directory is an invaluable research tool for these parents, students, and professionals.
