Digital Dilemmas Diana C. Parry, Corey W. Johnson, Simone Fullagar, 2018-12-05 The proliferation of digital technologies virtual spaces and new forms of engagement raise key questions about the changing nature of gender relations and identities within democratic societies This book offers a unique collection of chapters that brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to explore how gender experiences and identities are being transformed by digital technologies in ways that affirm or deny social justice

Race Lessons Prentice T. Chandler, Todd S. Hawley, 2017-05-26 This volume addresses practical considerations of teaching about race in social studies providing concrete lesson ideas It aims to help teachers overcome fear colorblindness and assimilation narratives using Critical Race Theory and inquiry pedagogy to engage learners with race in history geography and more

Power and Resistance Wayne Antony, 2020-05-06T00:00:00Z How do we make sense of the social problems that continue to plague Canadian society Our understanding of issues such as poverty racism violence homophobia crime and pollution stems from our view of how society is structured From the dominant neoliberal perspective social problems arise from individuals making poor choices From a critical perspective however these social troubles are caused by structural social inequalities Disparities in economic social and political power that is relations of power based on class race gender and sexual orientation are the central structural element of capitalist patriarchal colonialist societies The contributors to Power and Resistance use this critical perspective to explore Canadian social issues such as poverty colonialism homophobia violence against women climate change and so on This sixth edition adds chapters on the corporatization of higher education the lethal impacts of colonialism democracy the social determinants of health drug policy and sexual violence on campus

Mourning and Mobilization in the Americas Lydia Huerta Moreno, 2026-01-01 Shows how communities across the Americas transform their grief over murdered and missing trans and non trans women girls and two spirit people into powerful social movements that challenge state violence and demand justice A groundbreaking and transnational examination of gender based violence Mourning and Mobilization in the Americas reimagines how we understand the relationship between grief and political action Lydia Huerta Moreno brings together the work of activists scholars artists writers and influencers from 1994 to 2023 to chronicle the intersection of activism with the rise of social media and the eventual implementation of legislation codifying woman killing as a crime Expanding the concept of femicide to encompass trans women two spirit people and missing and murdered women and girls across the Americas Huerta Moreno illuminates the deep connections between different forms of gender based violence across the Americas and weaves together questions of race class gender and immigration status Through innovative and sensitive analysis of postmortem politics the book reveals how communities transform profound loss into powerful social movements from Mexico to Brazil to the United States and Canada and beyond With a foreword by Sayak Valencia Mourning and Mobilization in the Americas is a must read for activists scholars and anyone concerned with human rights revealing how grief can spark resistance against systemic violence and government inaction Media, Social Movements, and Protest Cultures in Africa Lungile Tshuma, Trust Matsilele, Shepherd Mpofu, Mbongeni Msimanga, 2024-08-19 Edited by Lungile Tshuma Trust Matsilele Shepherd Mpofu and Mbongeni Msimanga Media Social Movements and Protest Cultures in Africa Hashtags Humor and Slogans provides a rich array of protest cultures in Sub Saharan Africa delving into the motivations for protests how protests are carried out and how those targeted by protests try to undermine the protesting movements Organized into three parts this book examines social media and social movements online protest strategies and media texts used in various protest movements within Sub Saharan Africa The contributors shed light on the brutality of various post colonial regimes in Africa while also giving the reader hope for the current movements that seek to wrestle their societies from the jaws of autocratic leaders This book offers a theoretically rich and methodologically diverse engagement of protest cultures in countries like Zimbabwe Nigeria and Ethiopia The wide tapestry of how these protests are formulated and executed speaks to Africa's diversity and dynamism This book makes an important intellectual contribution on social and political movements and is relevant to policy makers and researchers in the social sciences and digital humanities Re-Presenting Feminist Methodologies Kalpana Kannabiran, Padmini Swaminathan, 2017-03-16 Cover Title Copyright Dedication Contents
