Chasing Utopia Nikki Giovanni, 2013-10-29 From one of America's most celebrated poets Nikki Giovanni comes this poignant collection of poetry that celebrates the simple pleasures of everyday life and the bonds we share with those closest to us. This slim volume delights on every page. There are stories, imaginings, whimsy, and startling images which prove the poet's power and her command of language. Anyone with a love of language will be delighted with this book and the continuing publication of America's treasured poet. San Francisco Book Review. The poetry of Nikki Giovanni has spurred movements and inspired songs, turned hearts and informed generations. She's been hailed as a healer and as a national treasure. But Giovanni's heart resides in the everyday where family and lovers gather, friends commune, and those no longer with us are remembered. And at every gathering there is food, food as sustenance, food as aphrodisiac, food as memory. A pot of beans is flavored with her mother's sighs, this sigh part cardamom, that one the essence of clove. A lover requests a banquet as an affirmation of ongoing passion, homage is paid to the most time honored appetizer, soup. With Chasing Utopia, Giovanni demands that the prosaic, flowers, birdsong, winter be seen as poetic and reaffirms once again why she is as energetic, remarkable. Gwendolyn Brooks, wonderful. Marian Wright Edelman, outspoken, prolific, energetic. New York Times and relevant as ever. If there was a need for poetry that galvanized and inspired, there was also a demand for poetry that comforted and unified, and Ms. Giovanni provided on both counts. The Washington Post. Dispatches from the Vanguard Patrick Howell, 2020-08-11. A collection of writers, poets, artists, social entrepreneurs, and political activists in the Global International African Arts Movement speak about their work in the context of Trump, giving a voice to the voiceless and about the 5th estate of power in this timely and important book. Scheduled for release at the top of the 2020 US Presidential election, Dispatches from the Vanguard channels the global soul's hunger for freedom from authoritarian control. Partnering with dozens of Pulitzer Prize Winners, New York Times Best Sellers, poet laureates, TED speakers, and influencers within the Global International African Arts Movement, including Ishmael Reed, Tyehimba Jess, Rich, Fresh, Nikki Giovanni, Nnedi Okorafor, Chester Higgins, Tori Reid, and Jaki Shelton Green, Dispatches offers a poignant, high frequency rebuke of Donald J. Trump, actual man, strawman, and metaphor for white privilege and capitalist despotism, and his ruthless, amoral presidency. As we approach a key moment in the recent history of American politics, Dispatches from the Vanguard is a timely intervention showing us how we can challenge the impact and influence of politics when it is solely a means of authoritarian control.

Parenting/Internet/Kids: Domesticating Technologies Fiona Joy Green, Jaqueline McLeod Rogers, 2022-07-07 Parenting Internet Kids with three key terms slashed together conveys the idea that the practice of parenting may extend both to the Internet and to our children to the extent that both require attention care and forms of regulation and in turn provide support and enjoyment While the triadic title is somewhat playful it also strikes a serious note and introduces layered possibilities we are not simply raising children who have grown up in the internet age but also Domesticating Technologies by managing the computer relatively young in age too having established itself in homes in the 1980s Including perspectives from scholars and parents living in Australia Canada India Japan the UK and the USA the collection examines how the intimate presence of computer technology in our homes and on our bodies affects not only mothers and parenting but family life more broadly

No Study Without Struggle Leigh Patel, 2021-07-20 Examines how student protest against structural inequalities on campus pushes academic institutions to reckon with their legacy built on slavery and stolen Indigenous lands Using campus social justice movements as an entry point Leigh Patel shows how the struggles in higher education often directly challenged the tension between narratives of education as a pathway to improvement and the structural reality of settler colonialism that creates and protects wealth for a select few Through original research and interviews with activists and organizers from Black Lives Matter The Black Panther party the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee the Combahee River Collective and the Young Lords Patel argues that the struggle on campuses reflect a starting point for higher education to confront settler strategies She reveals how blurring the histories of slavery and Indigenous removal only traps us in history and perpetuates race class and gender inequalities By acknowledging and challenging settler colonialism Patel outlines the importance of understanding the relationship between the struggle and study and how this understanding is vital for societal improvement
