Allen, 2019-04-02 The world's fourth largest island with a unique biological and physical endowment Madagascar is home to an extraordinary insular civilization that has struggled for more than a century against external domination In this sensitive introduction to the Indian Ocean's great island Philip Allen shows how family affinities and community loyalties at the foundation of Madagascar's culture have influenced Malagasy nationalism and forged islandwide traditions These same principles have nonetheless engendered social cleavages and resistance to economic and political change In chapters on modern Madagascar Allen analyzes the inability of a series of regimes to maintain authority among a people deeply bound to rituals of communication with their spiritual environment He demonstrates how the first Malagasy Republic became stigmatized by its lingering identification with French colonialism and how the nationalist revolution in 1972 soon hardened into autocratic radicalism Allen explores the complex challenges facing Madagascar's resurgent democratic forces including a need to conserve the island's irreplaceable biodiversity and to facilitate authentic participation in public affairs without offending ancestral customs and local precedents Finally he discusses efforts to end Madagascar's economic and political dependence and to improve living conditions for its tragically impoverished population Stars and Keys Lee Haring, 2007-07-19 In Stars and Keys Folktales and Creolization in the Southwest Indian Ocean Lee Haring introduces readers to the rich folklore traditions of the islands of the southwest Indian Ocean The culture of Madagascar Mauritius Seychelles Réunion and the Comoros is a unique blend of traditions that have been brought from Africa South Asia Europe and the Middle East The folktales from these islands reflect the diversity of this culture and provide a rare opportunity to observe the fluidity of traditions and the process of creolization Haring presents the tales in a uniquely innovative style he interrupts the text as if he were reading aloud and directly addresses the reader His words and those of the storytellers are
