Contesting Illness Katherine Anne Teghtsoonian, Pamela Moss, 2008-02-16 The relationship between power and illness is the subject of limited discussion despite it being one of the most important issues in health related policies and services In an effort to correct this Contesting Illness engages critically with processes through which the meanings and effects of illness shape and are shaped by specific sets of practices Featuring original contributions by researchers working in a number of disciplines this collection examines intersections of power contestation and illness with the aid of various critical theoretical frameworks and methodological approaches The contributors explore experiences of illness diagnosis and treatment and analyse wider discursive and policy contexts within which people become ill and engage with health care systems Though each essay is unique in its approach they are linked together by a shared focus on contestation as a conceptual tool in considering the relationship between power and illness Rather than focus on a single example the contributors address different contested illnesses chronic fatigue syndrome and environmental illness for instance as well as the contested dimensions of illnesses that are accepted as legitimate such as cancer and autism Contesting Illness offers valuable insights into the assumptions practices and interactions that shape illness in the twenty first century Contributors Jan Angus Pia H B low Peter Conrad Joyce Davidson Helen Gremillion Maren Klawiter Joshua Kelley Steve Kroll Smith Katherine Lippel Pamela Moss Michael Orsini Michael J Prince Annie Potts Mary Ellen Purkis Sharon Dale Stone Cheryl Stults Katherine Teghtsoonian Jane M Ussher Catherine van Mossel

Writing Intimacy into Feminist Geography Pamela Moss, Courtney Donovan, 2017-02-24 Intimacy expressed through the feelings and sensations of the researcher is bound up in the work of a feminist geographer Tapping into this intimacy and including it in academic writing facilitates a grasping of the effects of power in particular places and initiates a discussion about how to access and tease out what constitutes the intimate both ethically and politically throughout the research process This collection provides valuable reflections about intimacy in the research process from encounters in the field through data analysis to the various pieces of written work A global and heterogeneous pool of scholars and researchers introduce personal ways of writing intimacy into feminist geography As authors expand existing conceptualizations of intimacy and include their own stories chapters explore the methodological challenges of using intimacy in research as an approach a topic and a site of interaction The book is valuable reading for students and researchers of Geography as well as anyone interested in the ethics and practicalities of feminist critical and emotional research methodologies

Practicing Qualitative Methods in Health Geographies Nancy E. Fenton, Jamie Baxter, 2016-07-15 Health geographers are increasingly turning to a diverse range of interpretative methodologies to explore the complexities of health illness space and place to gain more comprehensive understandings of well being and broader social models of health and health care Drawing upon postmodernism many health geographers are concerned with issues of representation the body and health care policy Also related to an emphasis on the body is the growing literature in feminist health geography that investigates the metaphorical physical and emotional challenges of the body and disease Reflecting these interests the chapters in this book set out the host of creative qualitative methods being used to explore the psychosocial experiences of individuals more directly using such traditional methods as in depth interviews and group discussions participant observation diaries and discourse analysis but also more novel techniques such as go along interviews reflexive writing illustrations and photographic techniques There are several areas of qualitative research unique to geographers which figure prominently in this volume including health and place comparative case study analysis and qualitative approaches to the use of geographic information systems GIS This collection brings together a wide range of empirical concerns related to questions of health and shines a light on the diversity of qualitative methods in practice Illustrating how qualitative methodologies are used in diverse health contexts this book fills an important niche for health geographers but will have wide appeal to health and geographic researchers

Stewart, 2005 This book fills a current need in Islamic Studies for a perspective on the nuanced investigation of ritual practices rather than a concentration on politicized forms of ideology The essays in this volume all written by scholarly specialists with first hand fieldwork experience take up a number of questions central to Islamic religion and ritual focusing on rituals as practices of making identities Identities are seen as changing in response to historical forces rather than as unchanging and rigid and the overall vision of Islam is seen as pluralistic rather than monolithic Several of the essays deal with gender relations showing that women may in practice gain some prominence in local contexts beyond what might be allowed by reformist Islamicizing authorities This is particularly the case when the focus is on varieties of Sufism The essays also recognize that elements of conflict and contestation are commonly present in ritual contexts because of struggles over power hence the title Contesting Rituals Politics gender relations and conflict between central reformists and local ritual specialists are all involved in these contestations Overall the volume aims to show the multiplicity of Islam and to demonstrate how the themes of multiplicity and unity are played out continuously over time The contributors to the volume are Kelly Pemberton South Asia Anna M Gade Indonesia Susan J Rasmussen Africa Elaine S Hutson Africa Shampa Mazumdar and Sanjoy Mazumdar USA Sean R Roberts Uyghurstan and Liyakat Takim Iraq The editors Pamela Stewart and Andrew Strathern provide an introductory overview This book is part of the Ritual Studies Monograph Series edited by Pamela J Stewart and Andrew Strathern Department of Anthropology University of Pittsburgh T his volume is a useful addition to literature on Islam ritual and identity It successfully investigates the plasticity of Muslim ritual on multiple axes providing historical perspectives explorations of spatial transformation and experience near ethnographic analyses Journal of Anthropological Research 2006 T he contributions offer interesting insights into aspects of Muslim religious practice their situatedness in wider social contexts and change over time The Journal of Social Anthropology The reader comes away with an awareness of the complexities of being Muslim in today s world of globalization mass migration changing gender roles and continuing ethno nationalist struggles The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland      The period of expansion or Georgia in the process of growth, 1802-1857 (continued) ; The period of division or Georgia in the assertion of state rights, 1857-1872 ; The period of rehabilitation or Georgia's rise from the ashes of war, 1872-1916 ; Georgia miscellanies Lucian Lamar Knight, 1917
