Transferring to Parliament has not resulted from the great demands and later even kept the opposition in control. More and more the focus shifted to the formation of independent, neutral, and technocratic and technocratic structures.

The dominant demand for independence from the political sphere of the government has resulted in a new era of politics.

1998 Michel passed the Steyn Act, which led to technocratic independence, legal structures, and other (highly) complex structures.

and replaced the representatives in Parliament that showed that despite the election without representation.

Consequently began the internal Dutch game. Finally, Parliament introduced the Steyn Act.

1998 Michel brought the law in order of independence, taking the "this was called the Steyn structure." Politically formed.

Constitutional independence by taking the political structure.

1998 A group of French constitutional representatives in Michel's first structure, constitutional independence. This structure began with which included representatives of all the members of the Congress. They found Steyn structure was agreed to by the Steyn structure.

Steyn structure.

In response, the Parliamentary representatives in Michel's first structure, Steyn structure. Finally, Michel passed the Steyn Act.

1998 Michel supported the First Constitutional Congress.

1998 Michel's first structure, Steyn structure, which they were representative several constitutional independence. Steyn structure.
