The Executive Branch

Chapter 6:

Lesson 1 The President and Vice President

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

- What is required of leaders?

Office of the President

1. Defining As you read the text, complete the chart below.

Constitutional Requirements of Presidents	Characteristics of Presidents
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Must be at least 35 years old• Native-born U.S. citizen• U.S. resident for at least 14 years	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• So far, all have been male• Most have come from states with large populations• Most have been white (Barack Obama was the 1st African American president)• Most have been Protestant Christians (JFK was the 1st Catholic president)• Most have a college education• Many have been lawyers

2. Explaining The president is elected by an indirect method of voting. What does that mean?

Woters do not vote directly for president. The Electoral College elects the president. When voters choose a candidate's name from the ballot, they are actually choosing a list of Electoral College members who pledge to vote for that candidate.

3. Analyzing How is it possible that the electoral votes of just a few small states can determine the outcome of a close presidential election?

Most states have a winner-take-all system. If a candidate wins by just a few popular votes in a state, that candidate wins all the state's electoral votes. The candidate might win several small states by winner-take-all and gain enough electoral votes to win the national election.
