

CHARACTER EVIDENCE:

Character is a combination of the peculiar qualities impressed by nature or by habit of the person, which distinguish him from others. Character means the collective qualities or characteristics especially mental and moral, that distinguish a person or thing. Character is the estimation of a person by his community.

The word 'character' includes both reputation and disposition." Character lies in the man; it is the mark of what he is.

REPUTATION:-

Reputation means to be good name; the credit, honour or character which is derived from a favourable public opinion or esteem, and character by report. Reputation is the common or general estimate of a person with respect to character or other qualities.

Woodroffe states that "Reputation means what is thought of a person by others and is constituted by public opinion. It is the general credit which a man has obtained in that opinion."

Reputation and character are not synonymous terms. Character is what a man or a woman is morally while reputation is what he or she is reputed to be i.e. reputation is the estimate which the community has of the person's character.

DISPOSITION:

Disposition is a natural tendency, an inclination; a person's temperament. It is the prevailing spirit of mind,
