1. Licensing Inspections: Subject to inspections by the Department or local licensing agency during regular business hours to ensure compliance with the standards

Unannounced inspections are conducted a minimum of three times per year and are conducted additionally to re-inspect noncompliance with the standards or if a complaint is received

2. Staff to child ratio: a way of calculating the maximum number of children one caregiver can be responsible for while children are in care. The ratios are based on the ages of the children. As children get older, a caregiver can supervise more of them because their needs change as they develop self-help skills. 1-6 is typically the most common for small children.

3. Emergency procedures and preparedness drills: Planning, Training, Drills, Education, Technology, Coordination, Communication.
