

CBP Officer Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

How to Apply for a CBP Officer Position & Register for the Written Test

Anyone interested in becoming a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer will need to apply to an open vacancy announcement. All applicants must take and pass a written test in order to be considered for a CBP Officer position.

THE APPLICATION PROCESS

Q: How do I apply to the CBP Officer position?

A: Vacancy announcements are posted on the Office Personnel Management's website at www.usajobs.gov. Applications are accepted electronically. Interested applicants should follow the link provided in the announcement to initiate their application.

Q: What does the application process involve?

A: Applicants will be given a pre-test for the CBP Officer position. The pre-test provides insight into how well you might do on the actual test for the CBP Officer. Applicants who successfully complete the pre-test will be asked a series of questions regarding their name, address, background information, qualifications and experience. Applicants will be instructed to submit their application package electronically (see required documents below).

TEST REGISTRATION PROCESS

Q: How do I register for the written test?

A: Once you successfully complete the application process you will have the opportunity to register for the written test. When you register you will be given a User ID and password. Keep a record of this. If you need to reprint an admission notice, print the study guide, or reschedule yourself into another test session, to go to www.usatestmanager.gov and log in using this User ID and password. If you do forget your User ID or password, click on "Forgot User ID and Password."

Q: Will I receive additional notification of my test?

A: On the next business day after you successfully registered for the written test, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) will send an e-mail to you at the e-mail address you gave in your application providing the test admission notice in text format rather than Adobe Acrobat format. OPM will also e-mail you a reminder notice five (5) days before your test date. If you are unable to attend your scheduled test date and you are unable to reschedule your test date at www.usatestmanager.gov, you will need to wait for the next CBP Officer open period to re-register.

Q: Is the written test mandatory?

A: Yes. All applicants must take and pass the written test for consideration as a CBP Officer.

Q: If I have already taken the test, do I have to take it again?

A: Anyone who has taken and passed the written test after November 2010 has a valid test score. If you previously failed the written test you must wait one year to retake the test.

Q: If I do not live in the area where the test is being offered, can I take the test at an alternate location?

A: No. All locations where testing will be offered are identified during the online application process. When you register, you must identify the location where you wish to be tested.
