1. Functions of Management

1. Planning
2. Organizing
3. Staffing
4. Directing
5. Controlling / evaluating

Planning: determining in advance what should happen → essential for organizing, staffing, directing, and controlling

- Involves setting goals and objectives, policies, procedures and methods
- Characteristics of planning
 - Repetitiveness
 - Standing plans → used repeatedly, provide consistency/predictability
 - Single-use plans → not to be repeated, kept for records
 - To attain specific objectives within short period of time
 - Time span
 - Short range/operational → less than a year (e.g. yearly operating budget)
 - Long-range → greater than 5 years (e.g. building plan)
 - Level of management
 - Top managers → broad comprehensive planning of goals/objectives
 - Middle managers → develop policies
 - First-line → develop methods and procedures
 - Flexibility
 - Longer range planning must be more flexible, rigid planning increases risk of inability to cope with changes

Enablers

1. Objectives → predetermined, toward which effort directs its efforts
 - Provide direction and serve as motivators
2. Policies → general guides for decision-making, boundaries to operate within
 - i.e. "all customer complaints must be addressed within one day"
3. Procedures → specific guide for daily operations, chronological sequence of activities (i.e. "how to run the dishwasher")
4. Time span
 - Short range / operational planning → covers period up to a year
 - e.g. operating budget (usually projected in days, weeks, or months)

book It throws light on important unexplored aspects of the pursuit of historical truth It tells how alone among historians Noble Frankland fought in the bomber offensive during the Second World War and then together with Sir Charles Webster wrote its official history how he transformed the Imperial War Museum from a dying institution into one of the world s leading historical centres for the study of the conflicts of the twentieth century how he played a major part in television documentary productions including in particular The World at War and how he wrote a series of original rigorously researched historical works In History at War he describes the battles he had to fight against the mandarins and media merchants who sought to impose a spin on history to suit their own ends and were ruthless and unscrupulous in their methods Its meticulous documentation gives a guarantee of authenticity to his staggering account of how those in high places tried to distort history which might otherwise seem scarcely credible The revelations about Bomber Harris relations with his superior Lord Portal during the war and their joint opposition to the two authors account of the strategic air theory and practice of history it does not confine itself to what can be written on the page It also covers Dr Frankland s experience of demonstrating history in museum galleries on the television screen on sites such as Duxford Airfield near Cambridge and on board HMS Belfast in the Pool of London The problem for historians of publishing a full and unbiased
