Chapman, 2019-01-21 In Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905 1925 Kathleen Chapman re defines Expressionism by situating it in relation to the most common type of picture in public space during the Wilhelmine twentieth century the commercial poster Focusing equally on visual material and contemporaneous debates surrounding art posters and the image in general this study reveals that conceptions of a modern image were characterized not so much by style or mode of production and distribution but by a visual rhetoric designed to communicate more directly than words As instances of such rhetoric Expressionist art and posters emerge as equally significant examples of this modern image demonstrating the interconnectedness of the aesthetic the utilitarian and the commercial in European modernism The American

Poster American Federation of Arts, Edgar Breitenbach, Margaret Cogswell, 1967 Content Imperative Posters J Taylor Education, 2009 The Content Imperative Posters are a great eye catching addition to a differentiated classroom Each poster features one of the five Content Imperatives as well as several open ended questions to promote inquiry and a deeper
