Dean, Brad Linnenkamp, 2024-09-10 Now in its second edition this comprehensive handbook emphasizes research based practices for educating students with intellectual disability across the life course from early childhood supports through the transition to adulthood. Driven by the collaboration of accomplished nationally recognized professionals of varied approaches lived experience and expertise and philosophies the book is updated with new theory and research based practices that have been shown to be effective through multiple methodologies to help readers select interventions and supports based on the evidence of their effectiveness. Considering the field of intellectual disability from a transdisciplinary perspective it integrates a greater focus on advancing equity in educational outcomes for students. This book is a professional resource and graduate level text for preservice and in service educators psychologists speech language therapists and other clinicians involved in the education of children youth and adults with intellectual disability.      Language and Literacy Development in Early Childhood Robyn Ewing, Jon Callow, Kathleen Rushton, 2016-06-02 This book provides pre service and practising teachers with an integrated approach to language and literacy learning in early childhood. Written by leading academics in the field it explores how children learn to talk play using language become literate and make meaning from birth through to the pre school years. Emphasising the importance of imagination and the arts in language learning this book addresses a wide range of contemporary issues highlights the impact of diverse socioeconomic language and cultural backgrounds on young children's language and literacy development and shows how early childhood teachers can effectively partner with parents and caregivers to help children learn through and about language. Case studies interviews reflective questions clear links to the Early Years Learning Framework and the Australian Curriculum and a rich array of practical and creative activities for use in early childhood environments help students connect theory and current research to practice.      English and Literacies Robyn Ewing, Siobhan O'Brien, Kathy Rushton, Lucy Stewart, Rachel Burke, Deb Brosseuk, 2022-02-18 Being literate in the twenty first century means being an empowered receiver user and creator of diverse text types communicated across multiple and rapidly changing modalities. English and Literacies Learning to make meaning in primary classrooms is an accessible resource that introduces pre service teachers to the many facets of literacies and English education for primary students. Addressing the requirements of the Australian Curriculum and the Early Years Learning Framework English and Literacies explores how students develop oracy and literacy. Reading viewing and writing are discussed alongside the importance of children's literature. Taking an inclusive and positive approach to teaching and learning for all students it explores the creation of texts using spelling grammar in context and handwriting keyboarding skills as well as the need for authentic assessment and reporting. Finally the text explores the importance of literacy partnerships and how teachers can address literacy challenges across the curriculum Literacy in Early Childhood and Primary Education Claire McLachlan,2013 Provides a comprehensive reader friendly introduction to literacy teaching and learning exploring both theoretical underpinnings and practical strategies Play in the Early Years Marilyn Fleer,2021-03-24 A comprehensive introduction to the theory and practice of play for children from birth to 8 years old Reading Problems Margaret Ann Richek,Lynne K.
