Phonics Screening Check

What is phonics?

Phonics is the study of the sounds of words and how they are written. It is the study of the relationship between the sounds of words and the letters that represent them.

Phonics is a key part of learning to read and write. It helps children to understand how words are made and how they are written. This helps them to learn to read and write more easily.

What is the phonics screening check?

The phonics screening check is a test that checks how well children can hear and use the sounds of words. It is a short test that takes about 10 minutes to complete.

The test is done by a teacher or a teaching assistant. It consists of two parts. In the first part, children hear a word and are asked to say the word. In the second part, children hear a word and are asked to write the word.

What is the purpose of the phonics screening check?

The purpose of the phonics screening check is to identify children who may have difficulties with phonics. This helps teachers to provide extra support for these children. The test also helps to monitor the progress of children who are receiving phonics support.

What is the format of the phonics screening check?

The phonics screening check is a short test that takes about 10 minutes to complete. It consists of two parts. In the first part, children hear a word and are asked to say the word. In the second part, children hear a word and are asked to write the word.

What is the result of the phonics screening check?

The result of the phonics screening check is a score that shows how well a child has done. The score is based on the number of words that the child has read correctly. The score is then compared to the scores of other children in the same year.
