Deconstructing The Zombie. Cultural and Ideological Approaches, Since the COVID 19 pandemic we have not experienced a moment of calm. A spectre haunts the world: the spectre of permanent crisis. Indeed, the forthcoming social, economic and political conditions will favour the zombies, ensuring their continued presence in our cultural agenda. Throughout several literary, cinematographic, serial fiction and video game cultural productions, this character has served as a symbolic representation of the individual at different times in history. Whether by harshly denouncing the alienated or passive attitudes that human beings tend to adopt in certain situations, urging them to rebel against the system, or by portraying the zombie as a victim of human racial, gender, social or class prejudices, and of their desire to exert power over their own and other species. This book covers a wide range of topics concerning its universe, offering a complete study divided into six significant areas: 1. Power, Labour and Economy; 2. Ethics, Religion and Society; 3. Flesh, Bodies and Gender; 4. Politics and Ideology; 5. Geographical Adaptations; 6. Social and Cultural Manifestations.

Prismatic Ecology Jeffrey Jerome Cohen, 2013-12-01. Emphasizing sustainability, balance and the natural, green dominates our thinking about ecology like no other color. What about the catastrophic, the disruptive, the inaccessible and the excessive? What of the ocean's turbulence, the fecundity of excrement, the solitude of an iceberg, multihued contaminations? Prismatic Ecology moves beyond the accustomed green readings of ecocriticism and maps a colorful world of ecological possibility. In a series of linked essays that span place, time and discipline, Jeffrey Jerome Cohen brings together writers who illustrate the vibrant worlds formed by colors. Organized by the structure of a prism, each chapter explores the coming into existence of nonanthropocentric ecologies. Red engages sites of animal violence, apocalyptic emergence and activism. Maroon follows the aurora borealis to the far North and beholds in its shimmering alternative modes of world composition. Chartreuse is a meditation on postsustainability and possibility within sublime excess. Grey is the color of the undead. Ultraviolet is a potentially lethal force that opens vistas beyond humanly known nature. Featuring established and emerging scholars from varying disciplines, this volume presents a collaborative imagining of what a more than green ecology offers. While highlighting critical approaches not yet common within ecocriticism, the contributions remain diverse and cover a range of topics including materiality, the inhuman and the agency of objects. By way of color, Cohen guides readers through a reflection of an essentially complex and disordered universe and demonstrates the spectrum as an unfinishable totality, always in excess of what a human perceives.
