Learning from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Classrooms Joan C. Fingon, Sharon H. Ulanoff, 2012-07-27 This resource guide looks at new classroom based literacy research that supports all learners including culturally and linguistically diverse students. The authors demonstrate how teachers and researchers develop instructional practices based on multiple languages and the literacy contexts of their schools. They describe classrooms where literacy and learning is encouraged and respected highlighting best practices for classrooms that include English language learners. This valuable book will inform all educators interested in classroom literacy research and how it supports achievement for diverse students. It features contributions from authors at the forefront of teacher research that hold the most promise for initiating change.

Contributors: Josephine Arce, Diane Brantley, Sandra A. Butvilofsky, Susan Courtney, Gregory J. Cramer, Elizabeth Padilla, Detwiler, Virginia Gonzalez, Dana L. Grisham, Shira Lubliner, Jodene Kersten, Morrell, Sandra, Liliana Pucci, Alice Quiocco, Ambika G. Raj, Richard Rogers.

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K-16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups. The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks, the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula, shape students' thoughts and behavior. They perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race, class, gender, sexuality, and disability. Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism, militarism, consumerism, White supremacy, heterosexism, rugged individualism, technology, and a positivistic conception of the world. Finally, the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production.

Differentiated Literacy Instruction for English Language Learners Alice L. Quiocco, Sharon H. Ulanoff, 2009 Differentiated Literacy Instruction for English Language Learners assists teachers in developing a multifaceted approach to successful instruction uniquely clarifying the critical role of culture and language in working with English language learners. Carefully crafted chapters guide literacy educators from initial assessment to the development of successful differentiated instruction. Drawing on their vast experience with teaching English Learners Alice Quiocco and Sharon Ulanoff offer teachers a myriad of practical strategies.

lots of authentic teacher examples and detailed lesson plans They identify how to build English skills with English learners at every developmental level In addition the authors also feature a chapter detailing the steps necessary to reach English learners who have been identified for special education a topic infrequently covered in other texts The explicit lesson plans field studies and classroom vignettes crystallize the theories presented in this text Teachers will find that Differentiated Literacy Instruction for English Language Learners promotes a personalized approach to English learning that will prove to be a vital tool for anyone hoping to maximize their students potential What reviewers say The authors know their field and they recognize and confirm teachers abilities and expertise to enhance English language learners content literacy development Janet Richards University of South Florida I think the authors do a wonderful job connecting theory to practice The writers do an excellent job of writing a clear and interesting text Debra Price Sam Houston State University There is much value in the pedagogical features of this book I have never seen such an extensive explanation of language acquisition and the different ways teachers can assess English learners I think that it will be the best book on the market in this regard Deanna Gilmore Washington State University

Assessing English Language Learners in the Content Areas

Florin Mihai, 2010-06-11 Assessing English Language Learners in the Content Areas A Research into Practice Guide for Educators seeks to provide guidance to classroom teachers staff developers and test item designers who want to improve ELL assessment outcomes particularly in the areas of math science and social studies The first two chapters of the book establish the background for the discussion of content area assessment for ELLs examining several important characteristics of this rapidly growing student population as well as critical legislation affecting ELLs and providing a description of various forms of assessment including how ELL assessment is different from the assessment of English proficient students Important assessment principles that educators should use in their evaluation of tests or other forms of measurement are provided Other chapters review ELL test accommodations nationwide because surprisingly most teachers do not know what they can and cannot allow and the research on the effectiveness of these types of accommodations The book analyzes the characteristics of alternative assessment it discusses three popular alternative assessment instruments performance assessment curriculum based measurement and portfolios and makes recommendations as to how to increase the validity reliability and practicality of alternative assessments The book proposes fundamental assessment practices to help content area teachers in their evaluation of their ELL progress
