Schacter, 2011-11-25 This work revisits the millennia old Jewish Christian encounter by providing a nuanced understanding of its challenges as well as presenting new perspectives on hitherto neglected areas of cultural religious and social interchange and influence Jewish-Christian Relations Michael Shermis, 1988 A selected listing of material in English on Jewish Christian relations throughout the centuries written or produced from the late 1940s to the present Includes more than 550 books over 60 pamphlets and sections for articles journals congresses media syllabi service groups and organizations and speakers See the subject index under Anti Judaism Anti Semitism and Holocaust Christians & Jews Faith to Faith Arnold James Rudin, 2011 In time for Pope Francis's new initiatives We now have the potential to end two thousand years of hostility will we succeed New in paperback With keen wisdom and a masterful understanding of history Rabbi James Rudin an acclaimed authority in the field of Jewish Christian relations provides the context necessary for Christians and Jews to recognize the critical challenges posed by the past and the future of their two religions Spanning twenty centuries of controversy horror and promise Rudin's narrative examines The sources of both conflict and commonality between the two religions The need to address and redress past wrongs The agenda required to create a shared future free of bigotry It includes proven approaches for successful interreligious dialogues including tips on session organization project ideas and a discussion guide to enhance Christians and Jews knowledge of each other

Is There a New Imbalance in Jewish-Christian Relations? António Barbosa da Silva,1992 Asserts that three preconditions have produced an imbalance and created difficulties in conducting Christian Jewish dialogue since 1967 that Christians should renounce antisemitism abstain from proselytizing among Jews and recognize Israel s right to exist within the boundaries accepted by the UN Discusses Rosemary Ruether s thesis that Christian anti Judaism implies the concept of antisemitism arguing that the intention to eradicate the roots of antisemitism from the New Testament could shake the foundations of Christian teaching and produce a relativization of Christianity States that some passages of the New Testament are anti Judaic only with respect to Jesus contemporaries and are not inherently anti Jewish Ch 8 pp 293 305 discusses the Holocaust from a Christian theological perspective considering it absolutely inhuman anti biblical and anti Christian Concludes that all forms of antisemitism including the Holocaust are a rejection of the biblical concept of God of man and of Judeo Christian ethics

Jews in Dialogue Magdalena Dziackowska,Adele Valeria Messina,2020-03-17 Jews in Dialogue discusses Jewish post Holocaust involvement in interreligious and intercultural dialogue in Israel Europe and the United States The essays within offer a multiplicity of approaches and perspectives historical sociological theological etc on how Jews have collaborated and cooperated with non Jews to respond to the challenges of multicultural contemporaneity The volume s first part is about the concept of dialogue itself and its potential for effecting change the second part documents examples of successful interreligious cooperation The volume includes an appendix designed to provide context for the material presented in the first part especially with regard to relations between the State of Israel and the Catholic Church

Christian Jewish Relations ,1990 Issues in the Jewish-Christian Dialogue Helga B. Croner,Leon Klenicki,1979 A Stimulus book Includes bibliographical references and index

Christian-Jewish Relations Through the Centuries Stanley E. Porter,Brook W. Pearson,2004-12-19 Christian Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming in their own way a part of the ongoing dialogue

Introduction to Jewish-Christian Relations Michael Shermis,Arthur E. Zannoni,2003 In recent decades Christians and Jews are beginning to ask questions about one another s traditions to break down centuries old barriers of prejudice and to explore not only our differences but our similarities of faith as well This book walks the reader through rich but controversial terrain the Bible the Holocaust the state of Israel anti Judaism theology Christology intermarriage feminism and approaches to education In each area the reader is asked to listen to be open to stretch and to wrestle with the deeply felt beliefs that unite as well as divide us The authors representing Jewish Protestant and Catholic traditions introduce the reader to the terms content and intricacies of inter religious dialogue the quest for better relations among all those who worship the God of Abraham and Sarah

The Problems of Jewish Christians in the Johannine Community Celestino G. Lingad, 2001 A perspective reader is struck by the harsh language of the dispute in John's Gospel as well as Jesus' attitude even towards the Jews who supposedly believed in him see John 2:23, 8:31, 44 Almost from the outset the Johannine Jesus to speak about to speak about early on the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him 5:18 cf 7:1, 25:11, 53 Indeed only in the Fourth Gospel does Jesus ever ask his interlocutors Why do you seek to kill me and this not once repeatedly 7:19, 8:37, 40 Was this hostility really between Jesus and his contemporary Jews alone or is there another way of making sense of the Gospel data Read autobiographically as a two level drama the Gospel describes the going on in Jesus' life which serves as a window for us to see what John and his Community were going through toward the end of the first century A.D. This work attempts firstly to determine who the opponents involved were and secondly their possible problem areas with or within the Johannine Community as reflected in the Fourth Gospel To this end selected passages in John 2:3, 6, 7 and 8 are analyzed to highlight possible answers The main difficulty seems to stem from the Christological stance of the parties involved In contrast to the opponents' low Christology in the Gospel and the secessionists' ultra light Christology in the Epistles Johannine high Christology sees Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth John 1:45 as The Messiah the Son of God 20:31 i.e. divine in the univocal sense

Jewish-Christian Relations Abel Mordechai Bibliowicz, 2019-03-01 I am in fundamental agreement with Bibliowicz's thesis that the anti Jewish polemic in the New Testament reflects debates between Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus not a polemic between Christians and Jews and with the implications which he has drawn for Christian theology May this book find a wide readership among people devoted to the cause of the healing of memories between Jews and Christians Peter C. Phan Professor Chair of Catholic Social Thought Georgetown University President of the Catholic Theological Society of America Standing on a brilliant and insightful reconstruction of Paul and on a quite shocking but perhaps compelling reading of Mark the author offers a number of original and in some cases quite compelling theoretical reconstructions of the context and purposes of early Christian texts a work of sublime moral passion David P. Gushee Distinguished University Professor of Christian Ethics and Director Center for Theology and Public Life Mercer University President elect American Academy of Religion Author of Kingdom Ethics Following Jesus in Contemporary Context An intrepid excursion into the Christian discourse The quest of an intellectual a humanist Interesting and in fact overwhelming A timely and honest engagement of the Christian texts authors and scholars by a Jewish intellectual Burton L. Mack Professor of Early Christianity Claremont

School of Theology California author of A Myth of Innocence Mark and Christian Origins There is great merit to Bibliowicz's approach I highly recommend this book for anyone interested in the Jewish Christian dialogue Scholars may disagree with a number of Bibliowicz's conclusions as I do with his interpretation of the Epistle to the Hebrews But even in disagreeing scholars in the field of Jewish Christian studies will learn new ways of challenging and thinking about old presumptions

Eugene J Fisher Distinguished Professor of Theology Saint Leo University Former staff person for Catholic Jewish relations for the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops Consultor to the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews member of the International Catholic Jewish Liaison Committee representing the Holy See An important work Sensitive and deeply researched In the deepest sense a profound theological work

Clark M Williamson Professor Christian Theological Seminary Indiana author of Way of Blessing Way of Life A Christian Theology I very much appreciated the depth and scope of the scholarship accompanied by the kind and humble spirit of the author it may also prove to be one of the formidable and formative scholarly contributions of the decade for both biblical and historical scholars

Michael Thompson Professor Religious Studies Oklahoma State University In methodical and precise fashion Bibliowicz takes the reader through the relevant ancient Christian texts bearing on the question at hand In so doing he proposes an intriguing compelling thesis The book should prove to be a major voice in the ongoing debate

Brooks Schramm Professor of Biblical Studies Lutheran Theological Seminary Impressive work With this impassioned study available to us it will no longer be possible for us to ignore the unintended ways the unthinkable came to be and still say we did not know

Didier Pollefeyt Professor Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies Katholieke Universiteit Leuven Belgium coauthor of Anti Judaism and the Fourth Gospel and Paul and Judaism An original and plausible claim that goes beyond most of modern scholarship a solid contribution to the study of anti Judaism in early Christianity

Joseph B Tyson Professor Religious Studies Southern Methodist University author of Marcion and Luke Acts A Defining Struggle Well researched and thorough Intelligent and thoughtful accessible the argumentation compelling

Michele Murray Professor Bishop's University Canada author of Playing a Jewish Game Gentile Christian Judaizing in the First and Second Centuries C E A detailed and insightful exploration of the writings of the early Jesus movement argues convincingly that the origins of Christian anti Judaism are to be found among early non Jewish followers of Jesus who were in conflict with Jesus's disciples and first followers a must read

Tim Hegedus Professor of New Testament Waterloo Lutheran Seminary Wilfrid Laurier University Canada Bibliowicz uses solid scholarship to engage large and difficult topics while managing to be balanced and clear invites Christians to walk a deep journey toward truth and suggests a compelling nuance that the conflicts in the early texts were between Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus not between Jews and Christians

David L Coppola Executive Director Center for Christian Jewish Understanding Sacred Heart University A meticulous study a mammoth endeavor goes beyond others in his interpretation of the evidence tracing and documenting distinctions and tensions in the early Jesus movement

N A Beck Professor of Theology and Classical Languages

Texas Lutheran University author of Mature Christianity in the 21st Century The Recognition and Repudiation of the Anti Jewish Polemic of the New Testament The topics Bibliowicz engages are complex Although some of his interpretations are controversial Gentile Christians should set aside apologetical agendas and honestly ponder the challenges put forward by the author Dale C Allison Jr Professor of New Testament Princeton Theological Seminary author of Constructing Jesus History Memory and Imagination Never Revoked Marianne Moyaert, Didier Pollefeyt, 2010-07-13 The Declaration Nostra Aetate issued by the Second Vatican Council on October 28 1965 on the relationship of the Church to non Christian religions marks a revolutionary milestone in the history of interreligious relations With this document the Catholic Church sought to establish a new climate in which encounter and dialogue were understood as part of the Church's role in the world As such Nostra Aetate expresses the dialogical spirit of the Second Vatican Council This book is inspired by the same dialogical spirit of Nostra Aetate addressing some of the difficult theological challenges that lie ahead of us It takes Nostra Aetate as an ongoing challenge to develop new theological reflections in the dialogical spirit of Vatican II The contributors in this volume therefore do not only look to the past but also critically articulate the challenges and obstacles confronting Jewish Christian relations today all the while looking forward to strengthening the dialogue They not only show the courage of naming the resistances against dialogue the remnants of substitution theology the asymmetry in Jewish Christian dialogue they set out to develop new perspectives for the theology of Jewish Christian dialogue The Challenges Posed by the Palestinian Theology of Liberation on the Jewish-Christian Relations Dixon Tang, 2009 The Future of Jewish-Christian Relations Norma H. Thompson, Bruce K. Cole, 1982 Jews, Christians and Muslims in Encounter Edward Kessler, 2013 This book reflects on one of the most pressing challenges of our time the current and historical relationships that exist between the faith traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Kessler's writings shed light on common purpose as well as how to manage difference
