Changing Churches An Orthodox Catholic And Lutheran Theological Conversation:

Changing Churches Mickey L. Mattox,A. G. Roeber,2012-02-27 Sharp controversies about biblical authority the ordination of women evangelical worship styles and the struggle for homosexual inclusion have rocked the Lutheran church in recent decades In Changing Churches two men who once communed at the same Lutheran Eucharistic table explain their similar but different decisions to leave the Lutheran faith tradition one for Orthodoxy the other for Roman Catholicism Here Mickey L Mattox and A G Roeber address the most difficult questions Protestants face when considering such a conversion including views on justification grace divinization the church and its authority women and ministry papal infallibility the role of Mary and homosexuality They also discuss the long standing ecumenical division between Rome and the Orthodox patriarchates acknowledging the difficult issues that still confront those traditions from within and divide them from one another

Church as Fullness in All Things Mark W. Birkholz,Jonathan Mumme,Richard J. Serina, Jr.,2019-06-25 What is Lutheran ecclesiology The Lutheran view of the church has been fraught with difficulties since the Reformation Church as Fullness in All Things reengages the topic from a confessional Lutheran perspective Lutheran theologians and clergy who are bound to the Holy Scriptures and the Lutheran Confessions explore the possibilities and pitfalls of the Lutheran tradition s view of the church in the face of contemporary challenges The contributors also take up questions about and challenges to thinking and living as the church in their tradition while looking to other Christian voices for aid in what is finally a common Christian endeavor The volume addresses three related types of questions faced in living and thinking as the church with each standing as a field of tension marked by disharmonized though perhaps not inherently opposite poles the individual and the communal the personal and the institutional and the particular and the universal Asking whether de facto prioritizations of given poles or unexamined assumptions about their legitimacy impinge the church Lutherans seek the volume closes with Anglican Reformed and Roman Catholic contributors stating what their ecclesiological traditions could learn from Lutheranism and vice versa

The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma,Matthew Levering,2015 This Handbook introduces the theology of the sacraments from a variety of perspectives It contains historical overviews biblical discussion philosophical and theological reflection as well as ecumenical discussion It is one of the most comprehensive overviews of the sacraments throughout the tradition of the Christian church

Beloved Community Hinlicky, Paul R.,2015-05-04 An original comprehensive system of theology especially apropos to the post Christendom North American context In this scholarly work Paul Hinlicky transcends the impasse between dogmatic and systematic theology by articulating and arguing a single cognitive claim God is the One who has determined to redeem the creation by the missions of his Son and Spirit Deploying an unusual Spirit Son Father trinitarian scheme Hinlicky treats the problem of the knowledge of God and the nature of the theological discipline and he proceeds to carefully develop his system of theology through expansive wideranging argumentation Each main part of his work includes discussion of the ecumenical convergences in doctrine gained over the last generation and exploration of interreligious dialogues especially with Judaism and Islam Throughout the book Hinlicky engages with other theologians particularly with Robert Jenson's Systematic Theology and concludes each major section with a discussion of an alternate perspective on the subject Religious and Theological Abstracts, 2003 Orthodox Christians and the Rights Revolution in America A. G. Roeber, 2024-01-02 A distinctive and unrivaled examination of North American Eastern Orthodox Christians and their encounter with the rights revolution in a pluralistic American society From the civil rights movement of the 1950s to the culture wars of North America commentators have identified the partisans bent on pursuing different rights claims When religious identity surfaces as a key determinant in how the pursuit of rights occurs both the religious right and liberal believers remain the focus of how each contributes to making rights demands How Orthodox Christians in North America have navigated the rights revolution however remains largely unknown From the disagreements over the rights of the First Peoples of Alaska to arguments about the rights of transgender persons Orthodox Christians have engaged an anglo American legal and constitutional rights tradition But they see rights claims through the lens of an inherited focus on the dignity of the human person In a pluralistic society and culture Orthodox Christians both converts and those with family roots in Orthodox countries share with non Orthodox fellow citizens the challenge of reconciling conflicting rights claims Those claims do pit religious liberty rights claims against perceived dangers from outside the Orthodox Church But internal disagreements about the rights of clergy and people within the Church accompany the Orthodox Christian engagement with debates over gender sex and marriage as well as expanding political legal and human rights claims Despite their small numbers North American Orthodox remain highly visible and their struggles influential among the more than 280 million Orthodox worldwide Orthodox Christians and the Rights Revolution in America offers an historical analysis of this unfolding story Lutheran Forum, 1974 Roman Catholic/Pentecostal Dialogue (1977-1982) Jerry L. Sandidge, 1987 Vatican II opened the doors of the Roman Catholic Church for official theological dialogue with separated brethren The rise of the neo Pentecostal movement and charismatic renewal caused the doors of the historical Pentecostals to open toward Christians in the mainline churches This book discusses the historical precedents of the Vatican Pentecostal Dialogue and reviews the ten years Dialogue 1972-1982 with special attention given to the second five years The implications of this Dialogue for ecumenism is also discussed Volume Two contains all the documents from the second quinquennium including the 16 theological papers and final report The Capuchin Annual, 1967 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2006 Yearbook of American Churches, 1969 Yearbook of American and Canadian Churches, 1969 Hopes for Better Spouses A. G. Roeber, 2013-06-13 Modern Protestant debates about spousal relations and the meaning of marriage began in a forgotten international dispute some 300 years ago The Lutheran Pietist ideal of marriage as friendship and mutual pursuit of holiness battled with the idea that submission defined spousal roles Exploiting material culture artifacts broadsides hymns sermons private correspondence and legal cases
