Emerging Literacy ,1998 Defining literacy development as a continuous process that has its roots in the home this training guide is intended to enhance the skills of Head Start staff in collaborating with families to support the development of children's language skills The guide also describes the emerging literacy for children from birth through the preschool years. Following an introductory section the guide presents four training modules. Each module details expected outcomes, key concepts, background information, learning activities and next steps. Handouts are included for each module. Module One Emerging Literacy Supporting a Natural Process provides an overview of emerging literacy. Module Two From Cooing to Talking Partners in Conversation enhances staff ability to listen and respond to children, engage them and encourage their use of listening and speaking skills. Module Three The Magic World of Reading Opening Doors for Children helps staff improve their skills in enhancing children's enjoyment and understanding of books. Module Four Setting the Stage for Literacy Explorations allows staff to create literacy rich environments in Head Start settings and promote literacy exploration through the environment and activities related to children's interests. The final sections of the guide include a continuing professional development section which suggests activities to enhance skills developed through this guide and a resource section which offers more information concerning topics covered in the guide.

National Board of Review Magazine, 1928      Report on Mother and Toddler Groups Joyce Donoghue, 1980      Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library, 1992      Creating Environments for Learning Julie Bullard, 2010 Covers Birth to Age Eight. This new text provides a balance of theory and application to help novices and practicing early childhood professionals understand why and how to set up, arrange and make changes to early childhood learning environments. Organized largely by chapters on learning centers, literacy, manipulative and sensory, science, mathematics, etc. The text also covers foundational information such as the emotionally supportive and equitable environment, the role of the teacher, the importance of the environment design principles and health and safety. Coverage woven through every chapter includes material for all age groups in early childhood, infants and toddlers through 3rd grade, assessing the environment, meeting the needs of ALL learners, the teacher's role in facilitating learning in the various environments and ways to address each curricular area outdoors. It is designed for college courses taught at two and four year institutions that focus on quality early childhood learning environments and curriculum.      Media Spectrum, 1990      Nursing Care in the Community Joan M. Cookfair, 1996 This edition includes new chapters on management concepts and school health nursing and offers expanded coverage of caring for the individual with specific details on caring for the maternal infant client. It also provides case studies, chapter objectives.      The Complete Learning Spaces Book for Infants and Toddlers Rebecca T. Isbell, Christy Isbell, 2003 The Complete Learning Spaces Book for Infants and Toddlers is designed to help busy teachers meet the challenge of creating an effective learning environment for very young children. It includes ideas for planning, using and evaluating learning spaces that will captivate infants and toddlers and encourage the developmental process. Information for each learning space is complete with thorough illustrations, letters to parents, literacy connections and vocabulary lists. Learning objectives and assessments help determine the impact of each learning space on the children's development.
