Gothic Fantasy Advanced Strategies:

Horror Literature and Dark Fantasy Mark A. Fabrizio, 2018-05-16 Horror Literature and Dark Fantasy Challenging Genres is a collection of scholarly essays intended to address the parent whose unreasoning opposition to horror entails its removal from a school curriculum the school administrator who sees little or no redeeming literary value in horror and the teacher who wants to use horror to teach critical literacy skills but does not know how to do so effectively The essays herein are intended to offer opportunities for teachers in secondary schools and higher education to enrich their classes through a non canonical approach to literary study This book is a deliberate attempt to enlarge the conversation surrounding works of horror and argue for their inclusion into school curricula to teach students critical literacy skills American Grand Strategy in the Mediterranean during World War II Andrew Buchanan, 2014-02-10 This book argues that the United States had a powerful and sustained grand strategic approach to the countries of the Mediterranean during World War II and that under the active leadership of Franklin Roosevelt it attained substantial wartime and post war advantage by pursuing this course Afro-Realisms and the Romances of Race Melissa Daniels-Rauterkus, 2020-04-15 Winner of the SAMLA Studies Award Honorable Mention for the MLA William Sanders Scarborough Prize From the 1880s to the early 1900s a particularly turbulent period of U S race relations the African American novel provided a powerful counternarrative to dominant and pejorative ideas about blackness In Afro Realisms and the Romances of Race Melissa Daniels Rauterkus uncovers how black and white writers experimented with innovative narrative strategies to revise static and stereotypical views of black identity and experience In this provocative and challenging book Daniels Rauterkus contests the long standing idea that African Americans did not write literary realism along with the inverse misconception that white writers did not make important contributions to African American literature Taking up key works by Charles W Chesnutt Frances E W Harper Pauline Hopkins William Dean Howells and Mark Twain Daniels Rauterkus argues that authors blended realism with romance often merging mimetic and melodramatic conventions to advocate on behalf of African Americans challenge popular theories of racial identity disrupt the expectations of the literary marketplace and widen the possibilities for black representation in fiction Combining literary history with close textual analysis Daniels Rauterkus reads black and white writers alongside each other to demonstrate the reciprocal nature of literary production Moving beyond discourses of racial authenticity and cultural property Daniels Rauterkus stresses the need to organize African American literature around black writers and their meditations on blackness but she also proposes leaving space for nonblack writers whose use of comparable narrative strategies can facilitate reconsiderations of the complex social order that constitutes race in America With Afro Realisms and the Romances of Race Daniels Rauterkus expands critical understandings of American literary realism and African American literature by destabilizing the rigid binaries that too often define discussions of race genre and periodization Magill's Guide to Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature: Lest darkness fall, 1996 These four
