Six books. One unforgettable family. An eighteen year journey of love, loss, and hope. When the world ended, Elle St. James thought survival was about staying alive. She was wrong. It was about staying human. In this complete collection, follow an unlikely band of survivors as they navigate love, loss, and rebuilding civilization in a world where humanity itself has evolved. From Elle's first terrifying discovery of her lethal abilities to Thea's final stand eighteen years later, witness a family forged not by blood but by choice, loyalty, and the unbreakable bonds that form when everything else falls away. What readers are saying: An absolutely stunning work of fiction. Goodreads Reviewer Lindsey Pogue mastered what it is to be human and the connections we build with one another. Amazon Reviewer I would give this book more than five stars if I could. BookBub Reviewer This complete collection includes six books: The Darkest Winter, The Longest Night, Midnight Sun, Fading Shadows, Untamed, Unbroken. Perfect for readers who love character-driven post-apocalyptic fiction. Found family dynamics. Slow-burn romances with emotional depth. Powers that feel more like burdens than gifts. Hard-earned happy endings that leave you wrecked. Sometimes the most shattered souls make the fiercest protectors. Sometimes love is the only thing that survives the end of everything. And sometimes when the world strips away everything familiar, the family you choose becomes the only thing worth fighting for. Begin the journey that readers call the most beautiful story ever read.

Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer,2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer s analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment
