Curios Search For Cool:

Curio's Search for Cool Mike Harris, 2003-11 Whether we are male or female young or old a young boy's search for respect is something we can all relate to The search for significance is an innate desire that permeates our choices even though we don't always realize it Especially when what we bring to the table our natural strengths aren't so obvious and positive attention isn't so automatic And so it was with Curio This is a story of an adolescent's search for himself told through the bedtime talks between a single widowed father and his son Not only does it portray a healthy relationship between father and son it uncovers many of the paradoxes associated with our search for a respectful identity Each night Dad spurs his son on like Jesus would have with just enough insight to prod Curio's desire for more Until finally Curio surprises his father with wisdom straight out of Heaven itself
