Catalog of Reprints in Series Robert Merritt Orton, 1943 The Peasantry, And, the Country Parson (Classic Reprint) Honoré de Balzac, 2017-12-06 Excerpt from The Peasantry And the Country Parson Few I suppose of the readers of Les Paysans in more recent years have read it without a more or less distinct mental comparison with the corresponding book in the Rougon Macquart series And I should hope that this comparative process has had in the best minds only one result Les Paysans which by the way is a very late book partly posthumous and is said though not on positive authority to have enjoyed the collaboration of Madame de Balzac is not one of Balzac's best but it is as far above La Terre from every conceivable point of view except that of Holy well Street as a play of Shakespeare is above one of Monk Lewis The comparison indeed exhibits something more than the difference of genius in Balzac and in M Zola It illustrates the difference of their methods We know how not merely the rougon macquart series in general but La Terre in particular was composed M Zola who is a conscientious man went down to a village somewhere in the Beauce if I recollect rightly stayed some time made his notes and came back to Paris There is nothing like the same great gulf fixed between the Londoner and the countryman in England as that which exists between the Parisian and the Provincial in France But imagine an Englishman not even English by race from his youth up an inhabitant of great towns attempting to delineate the English peasantry after a few weeks stay in a Wiltshire village About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works School ,1907 The Athenaeum ,1907 The Bookman ,1910 The Reprint Bulletin ,1976
