As the darkness has crept in, your brave prayers may have given way to fearful pleas that your kids would experience God's kingdom in a safe and comfortable way. This generation needs heroes of the faith, and your child can be one of them, but that will require you to be strong and BRAVE. You and I must call out the bold Christ followers within our children and help them face the unknown future with divine confidence. Brave Moms, Brave Kids is an equipping tool that will help you identify the qualities present in true greatness, reject mommy fears, and replace them with immovable truth. Learn strategies for praying for and training your children more effectively, develop seven key lessons we must teach our children to live for Jesus. Courage starts with you, Mama. If you're going to raise a hero, you must become a hero because brave kids need brave moms. Let's do this together. Love, Lee. Kids-Tell-'Em Bible Stories Susan L. Lingo, Ruth Frederick, Marilynn G. Barr, 1999 This resource presents 26 exciting Old and New Testament Bible story lessons that are as fun to present as they are to hear. Why? Which curriculum should we use? How many volunteers do we need? How do we keep parents in the loop? And that's before we run into stalled check-in computers, missing activity sheets, and floors that need to be vacuumed. While all of the tasks of children's ministry are important, leaders can get easily distracted with the everyday work of doing ministry and lose sight of the main focus: the gospel. Writing from personal ministry experience, Jared Kennedy shares a four-fold approach for gospel-centered, missional children's ministry: hospitality, teaching, discipleship, and mission. This practical resource covers a variety of topics, ranging from creating child protection policies to putting together lesson plans to catechism, helpful for children's ministers and volunteers alike as they disciple children with the powerful message of the gospel. Applicable. Includes questions for reflection and evaluation. Helps leaders disciple the next generation. Features advice for sending kids and their families on mission. Ideal for Nursery, 5th Grade, Teachers, and Leaders. A practical and helpful resource for children's ministries.
