Confessions Jaume Cabre:

Confessions Jaume Cabre, 2014 At 60 Adri Ardevol re examines his life before his memory is systematically deleted He recalls a loveless childhood where the family antique business and his father's study become the centre of his world where a treasured Storioni violin retains the shadows of a crime committed many years earlier His mother a cold distant and pragmatic woman leaves him to his solitary games full of unwanted questions An accident ends the life of his enigmatic father filling Adri's world with guilt secrets and deeply troubling mysteries that take him years to uncover and driving him deep into the past where atrocities are methodically exposed and examined Confessions Jaume Cabre, 2024-07-04 Absolutely captivating ANDREA CAMILLERI Monumental Guardian Drawing comparisons with Shadow of the Wind The Name of the Rose and The Reader and an instant bestseller in ten languages Confessions is an astonishing story of one man's life interwoven with a narrative that stretches across centuries to create an addictive and unforgettable literary symphony At 60 and with a diagnosis of early Alzheimer's Adri Ardevol re examines his life before his memory is systematically deleted He recalls a loveless childhood where the family antique business and his father's study become the centre of his world where a treasured Storioni violin retains the shadows of a crime committed many years earlier His mother a cold distant and pragmatic woman leaves him to his solitary games full of unwanted questions An accident ends the life of his enigmatic father filling Adri's world with guilt secrets and deeply troubling mysteries that take him years to uncover and driving him deep into the past where atrocities are methodically exposed and examined Gliding effortlessly between centuries and at the same time providing a powerful narrative that is at once shocking compelling mysterious tragic humorous and gloriously readable Confessions reaches a crescendo that is not only unexpected but provides one of the most startling denouements in contemporary literature Confessions is a consummate masterpiece in any language with an ending that will not just leave you thinking but quite possibly change the way you think forever Translated from the Catalan by Mara Faye Lethem

Post-Conflict Literature Chris Andrews, Matt McGuire, 2016-04-20 This book brings together a variety of perspectives to explore the role of literature in the aftermath of political conflict studying the ways in which writers approach violent conflict and the equally important subject of peace Essays put insights from Peace and Conflict Studies into dialog with the unique ways in which literature attempts to understand the past and to reimagine both the present and the future exploring concepts like truth and reconciliation post traumatic memory historical reckoning therapeutic storytelling transitional justice archival memory and questions about victimhood and reparation Drawing on a range of literary texts and addressing a variety of post conflict societies this volume charts and explores the ways in which literature attempts to depict and make sense of this new philosophical terrain As such it aims to offer a self conscious examination of literature and the discipline of literary studies considering the ability of both to interrogate and explore the legacies of political and civil conflict around the world The book focuses on the experience of post Apartheid South Africa post Troubles Northern Ireland and post dictatorship Latin America The recent history of these regions and in particular their acute experience of ethno religious and civil conflict make them highly productive contexts in which to begin examining the role of literature in the aftermath of social trauma Rather than a definitive account of the subject the collection defines a new field for literary studies and opens it up to scholars working in other regional and national contexts To this end the book includes essays on post 1989 Germany post 9 11 United States the Israeli Palestinian conflict Sierra Leone and narratives of asylum seeker refugee communities This volume s comparative frame draws on well established precedents for thinking about the cultural politics of these regions making it a valuable resource for scholars of Comparative Literature Peace and Conflicts Studies Human Rights Transitional Justice and the Politics of Literature The Handbook of Psychoanalytic Holocaust Studies Ira

Brenner,2019-08-28 This book is a unique compilation of essays about the genocidal persecution fuelling the Nazi regime in World War II Written by world renowned experts in the field it confronts a vitally important and exceedingly difficult topic with sensitivity courage and wisdom furthering our understanding of the Holocaust Shoah psychoanalytically historically and through the arts Authors from four continents offer their perspectives clinical experiences findings and personal narratives on such subjects as resilience remembrance giving testimony aging and mourning There is an emphasis on the intergenerational transmission of trauma of both the victims and the perpetrators with chapters looking at the question of evil comparative studies prevention and the misuse of the Holocaust Those chapters relating to therapy address the specific issues of the survivors including the second and third generation through psychoanalysis as well as other modalities whilst the section on creativity and the arts looks at film theater poetry opera and writing The aftermath of the Holocaust demanded that psychoanalysis re examine the importance of psychic trauma those who first studied this darkest chapter in human history successfully challenged the long held assumption that psychical reality was essentially the only reality to be considered As a result contemporary thought about trauma dissociation self psychology and relational psychology were greatly influenced by these pioneers whose ideas have evolved since then This long awaited text is the definitive update and elaboration of their original contributions Jo confesso Jaume Cabré,2011-09-01 La novel la que ha projectat amb for a la
