Rooted Cosmopolitanism, Heritage and the Question of Belonging

Lennart Wouter Kruijer,Miguel John Versluys,Ian Lilley,2024-03-21 This book explores the analytical and practical value of the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism for the field of cultural heritage Many concepts of present day heritage discourses such as World Heritage local heritage practices or indigenous heritage tend to elide the complex interplay between the local and the global entanglements that are investigated as glocalisation in Globalisation Studies However no human group ever creates more than a part of its heritage by itself This book explores an exciting new alternative in scholarly critical heritage discourse the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism a way of making manifestations of globalised phenomena comprehensible and relevant at local levels It develops a critical perspective on heritage and heritage practices bringing together a highly varied yet conceptually focused set of stimulating contributions by senior and emerging scholars working on the heritage of localities across the globe A contextualising introduction is followed by three strongly theoretical and methodological chapters which complement the second part of the book six concrete empirical chapters written in response to the more theoretical chapters Two final reflective conclusions bring together these different levels of analysis This book will appeal primarily to archaeologists anthropologists heritage professionals and museum curators who are ready to be confronted with innovative and exciting new approaches to the complexities of cultural heritage in a globalising world The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Handbook of

Postcolonial Archaeology Jane Lydon,Uzma Z Rizvi,2016-07-01 This essential handbook explores the relationship between the postcolonial critique and the field of archaeology a discipline that developed historically in conjunction with European colonialism and imperialism In aiding the movement to decolonize the profession the contributors to this volume themselves from six continents and many representing indigenous and minority communities and disadvantaged countries suggest strategies to strip archaeological theory and practice of its colonial heritage and create a discipline sensitive to its inherent inequalities Summary articles review the emergence of the discipline of archaeology in conjunction with colonialism critique the colonial legacy evident in continuing archaeological practice around the world identify current trends and chart future directions in postcolonial archaeological research Contributors provide a synthesis of research thought and practice on their topic The articles embrace multiple voices and case study approaches and have consciously aimed to recognize the utility of comparative work and interdisciplinary approaches to understanding the past This is a benchmark volume for the study of the contemporary politics practice and ethics of archaeology Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress

The Nature of Heritage Lynn Meskell,2011-08-26 The Nature of Heritage The New South Africa is unique in revealing the conflicts inherent in preserving both natural and cultural heritage by examining the archaeological ethnographic and economic evidence of a nation's attempts to master its past and its future Provides a classic example of how nations attempt to overcome a negative heritage through past mastering of their histories Evaluates the continuing dominance of nature and conservation over concerns for cultural heritage Employs ethnographic and archaeological methodologies to reveal how the past is processed into a new national heritage Identifies heritage as therapy exemplified in the strategy for repairing legacies of racial and ethnic difference in post apartheid South Africa Highlights the role of archaeological heritage sites national parks and protected areas in economic development and social empowerment Explores how nature trumps culture and the global implications of the new configurations of heritage

Global Heritage Lynn Meskell,2015-06-22 Examines the social cultural and ethical dimensions of heritage research and practice and the underlying international politics of protecting cultural and natural resources around the globe Focuses on ethnographic and embedded perspectives as well as a commitment to ethical engagement Appeals to a broad audience from archaeologists to heritage professionals museum curators to the general public The contributors comprise an outstanding team representing some of the most prominent scholars in this broad field with a combination of senior and emerging scholars and an emphasis on international contributions
