Field, Benjamin Kaplan, 1951      A contextual study of the Caribou Eskimo kayak Eugene Yuji Arima, 1975-01-01 After a discussion of the place of material culture studies in modern anthropology the author shows the continuity of the Caribou Inuit kayak form from the Birnik culture. The reconstruction of general kayak development is given in detail as well as a thorough coverage of construction and use of the kayak. Mathisen, 1925      The Class Struggle in the Ancient Greek World G. E. M. Ste. Croix, 2025-07-01 The Class Struggle in the Ancient Greek World is an original and provocative reconstruction of 1 400 years of classical antiquity. Sharply written it is a major intervention in Marxist theories of class seeking to explain and illustrate the value of Marx's general analysis of society to ancient Greek studies. G E M de Ste Croix makes slavery central to the achievements of the Greek city states and wider classical civilisation. He traces the social origins of Athenian democracy and advances an innovative explanation for the decline and fall of the Roman Empire. Comparing the late Roman political system to a vampire bat Ste Croix argues that serfdom and a tightening fiscal screw left the peasant masses indifferent to the Empire's fate. Widely reviewed and debated The Class Struggle in the Ancient Greek World was hailed by the New York Review of Books as the only work in a Western language that has ever attempted to tell the story of the greatest part of the ancient world with the interests of the lower classes as its central theme      Study on Federal Regulation: Regulatory organization United States. It explores how the Romans made sense of their past and how people today can understand that history despite the inadequate evidence for early Rome and the Republic. All Latin and Greek source material is translated. The first essay in this collection was the Ronald Syme Lecture for 1993. The Origins of Roman Historiography argues that dramatic
