Liz Austen, Colin McCaig

Department Of Health Bursary Forms 2014:

Representations of the Academic Jean McNiff, 2023-03-31 This thoughtful volume challenges widely accepted traditionalist scientific notions of the academic prevalent in higher education institutions globally in order to promote best practice and redefine the field as accessible inclusive and forward thinking This book situates itself away from the dominant discourse on academia and eschews the common tropes that have proved prohibitive to furthering the field and research within By releasing the academic from the restrictive narrow boundaries typically imposed Representations of the Academic opens up a form of public sphere where the contributors bring together their innovative views to propose a new normative form Chapters explore examples of good practice that demonstrate alternative ways of thinking and in doing so the book continues an emergent tradition of investigating the origins nature and purposes of academic work at a time when critical values are under threat The book will be of interest to students academics and researchers in the fields of education educational research and higher and professional education more broadly Those involved with interdisciplinary and intercultural studies ethics and values in research will also benefit from this volume

Carceral Space, Prisoners and Animals Karen M. Morin, 2018-02-28 Carceral Space Prisoners and Animals explores resonances across human and nonhuman carceral geographies The work proposes an analysis of the carceral from a broader vantage point than has yet been done developing a trans species carceral geography that includes spaces of nonhuman captivity confinement and enclosure alongside that of the human The linkages across prisoner and animal carcerality that are placed into conversation draw from a number of institutional domains based on their form operation and effect These include the prison death row execution chamber and the animal slaughterhouse sites of laboratory testing of pharmaceutical and other products on incarcerated humans and captive animals sites of exploited prisoner and animal labor and the prison solitary confinement cell and the zoo cage The relationships to which I draw attention across these sites are at once structural operational technological legal and experiential embodied The forms of violence that span species boundaries at these sites are all a part of ordinary everyday industrialized violence in the United States and elsewhere and thus this carceral comparison amongst them is appropriate and timely

Routledge International Handbook of Nurse Education Sue Dyson, Margaret McAllister, 2019-11-26 While vast numbers of nurses across the globe contribute in all areas of healthcare delivery from primary care to acute and long term care in community settings there are significant differences in how they are educated as well as the precise nature of their practice This comprehensive handbook provides a research informed and international perspective on the critical issues in contemporary nurse education As an applied discipline nursing is implemented differently depending on the social political and cultural climate in any given context These factors impact on education as much as on practice and are reflected in debates around the value of accredited programmes and on the job training apprenticeship undergraduate and postgraduate pathways into nursing Engaging with these debates amongst others the authors collected here discuss how through careful design and delivery of nursing curricula nurses can be prepared to understand complex care processes complex healthcare technologies complex patient needs and responses to therapeutic interventions and complex organizations The book discusses historical perspectives on how nurses should be educated contemporary issues facing educators teaching and learning strategies the politics of nurse education education for advanced nursing practice global approaches and educating for the future Bringing together leading authorities from across the world to reflect on past present and future approaches to nurse education and nursing pedagogy this handbook provides a cutting edge overview for all educators researchers and policy makers concerned with nurse education
