Teaching for Joy and Justice Linda Christensen, 2009 Teaching for Joy and Justice is the much anticipated sequel to Linda Christensen's bestselling Reading Writing and Rising Up. Christensen is recognized as one of the country's finest teachers. Her latest book shows why. Through story upon story, Christensen demonstrates how she draws on students' lives and the world to teach poetry, essay, narrative, and critical literacy skills. Teaching for Joy and Justice reveals what happens when a teacher treats all students as intellectuals instead of intellectually challenged. Part autobiography, part curriculum guide, part critique of today's numbing standardized mandates, this book sings with hope born of Christensen's more than 30 years as a classroom teacher, language arts specialist, and teacher educator. Practical, inspirational, passionate, this is a must-have book for every language arts teacher, whether veteran or novice. In fact, Teaching for Joy and Justice is a must-have book for anyone who wants concrete examples of what it really means to teach for social justice.

If School Desks Could Speak Mirka Christesen, 2012-10 If School Desks Could Speak is a collection of true, humorous, and heartening vignettes from the classrooms of middle and high school students on both sides of the Atlantic. From being addressed as babe to finding a father's personal item glowing in the dark from dodging flying spit balls to flying business class from confiscating student amorous messages to helping a teenage mother cope with an unplanned pregnancy, these are only a few examples of life in the trenches. You will be drawn into this honest testimony to the real world of a classroom teacher.

Think On These Things Linda F.Garry,2013-08 These poems arose from taking a different look at my life and my surroundings after suffering severe injuries from a fall For a time I could not see the light of day but then my spirit was touched and I was elevated to see life differently Writing about my newly found life was therapeutic and ignited sources of inspiration observation and elation for me Look around and take the time to see listen and hear the quietness of your soul and let it speak to you Find peace happiness and joy in what you discover and think on those things Live in the present in the moment of absolute consciousness and see what you are doing right now and appreciate your life the air you breathe the nature that you see the people who love you and the nameless person by whom you pass It is my hope that you will enjoy reading my poems as much as I enjoyed writing them Thank You
