A comprehensive sourcebook it presents a wide range of documents illustrating religious life in the Roman world from the foundations of the city in the eighth century BC to the Christian capital more than a thousand years later. Each document is given a full introduction, explanatory notes and bibliography, and acts as a starting point for further discussion. Through paintings, sculptures, coins and inscriptions as well as literary texts in translation, the book explores the major themes and problems of Roman religion such as sacrifice, the religious calendar, divination, ritual and priesthood. Starting from the archaeological traces of the earliest cults of the city it finishes with a series of texts in which Roman authors themselves reflect on the nature of their own religion, its history even its funny side. Judaism and Christianity are given full coverage as important elements in the religious world of the Roman empire.      Fang-tastic Fiction Patricia O'Brien Mathews, 2011 Mathews uses a limited definition of paranormal and examines works set for the most part in a relatively realistic modern world inhabited by both humans and paranormal beings
