Craft Lessons Ralph Fletcher, JoAnn Portalupi, 2023-10-10 Since its publication in 1998 Craft Lessons has become a staple in the writing classroom of both new and experienced teachers. Authors Ralph Fletcher and JoAnn Portalupi recognized the need for a succinct resource and teamed together to write the second edition of Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K 8. Teachers pressed for time will appreciate the practical lessons and instructional language geared to three grade level groupings: K-2, 3-4, and 5-8. This edition includes 17 brand new lessons, mini lessons designed from teachers' comments about what is observed students writing. Revisions to other craft lessons and the resource materials sections have been expanded. New ways to approach teaching using elements of craft and the reading/writing connection. A subject index to find specific craft lessons with ease. The authors' thoughts about how craft lessons fit into their newest thinking about the qualities of writing: Ideas, Design, Language, and Presentation. The 95 lessons in this book provide a wealth of information for teaching leads, character endings, stronger verbs, and much more. This new edition reestablishes Craft Lessons as the crucial desert island book for harried writing teachers everywhere.

Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K-8 Ralph Fletcher, Portalupi, Fletcher, 1998-01 Nonfiction Craft Lessons JoAnn Portalupi, Ralph J. Fletcher, 2001 Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students. Most young writers are not intimidated by personal narrative, fiction, or even poetry, but when they try to put together a teaching book report or persuasive essay, they often feel anxious and frustrated. JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher believe that young nonfiction writers supply plenty of passion, keen interest, and wonder. Teachers can provide concrete strategies to help students scaffold their ideas as they write in this challenging genre. Like the authors' best-selling Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K 8, this book is divided into sections for K-2, 3-4, and middle school grades 5-8 students. These divisions reflect various differences between emerging, competent, and fluent writers. In each section, you'll find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that's most appropriate for that particular age. In the K-2 section, for example, a number of craft lessons focus on the all-about or concept book. In the 3-4 section, there are several lessons on biography. In the 5-8 section, a series of lessons addresses expository writing. Throughout the book, each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy-to-read format. Every lesson features three teaching guidelines: Discussion, a brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context; How to Teach It, concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting; Resource, Material, Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson, including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes. This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless, dump-truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer, more authoritative, and more organized. Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them. Be sure to look at the When Students Write videotapes too.
