Deep Processing Maturing Through Really Hard Times:

Deep Processing Paul G. Leavenworth, 2017-06-05 Deep Processing is a workbook written to help experienced followers of Christ mature through the really hard times in their life and leadership. This workbook uses the life story of Job in the Old Testament as the backdrop for understanding a biblical perspective on pain and suffering. Several practical questions are explored: How can I limit suffering in my life and/or others I care about? Is this even possible or good? Are there higher or deeper purposes in suffering that I cannot wrap my brain around but are ultimately good? How can I deal with the suffering that comes my way in a gracious and loving manner? How can I help others have hope in the midst of their suffering? These questions are just the tip of the iceberg of understanding the complexities of pain and suffering, but they are the questions that help frame this study of Job and deep processing. They serve as the framework for a better understanding of what the Bible says about the purposes of deep processing in the development of Christian leaders over a lifetime. Submitting to God in the midst of these situations and circumstances will ultimately determine whether we finish well in life and ministry. Seven specific categories of deep processing are described and explored: Life transitions, Life and leadership crises, Life and leadership conflict, Leadership backlash, Isolation, Spiritual warfare, and Brokenness. Deep Processing is formatted using the IDEA approach to transformational learning. Each chapter will begin with an Introduction, followed by Discovery, Explanation, and Application sections. The goal of the IDEA approach is to facilitate the gracious work of God through his Word and Spirit (John 4:24) to transform us into his likeness with ever increasing glory (II Corinthians 3:18 NIV). Transformation comes from our cooperation with God in the deep processing of the human heart that results in us becoming a letter from Christ written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts (II Corinthians 3:3 NIV). Deep Processing is designed as a stand alone and/or companion to other workbooks in The Finishing Well Series. This series of workbooks includes Finishing Well Deep Processing and The Extraordinary Power of a Focused Life for leaders who want to finish well in life and leadership and leave a lasting legacy.

Deep Processing Paul G. Leavenworth, 2011-09-01

Each chapter is designed to provide introductory information, discovery, and discussion questions, explanation, and application. Deep Processing is a stand alone or companion workbook for mid life leaders that also includes The Extraordinary Power of a Focused Life.

From Here to Maturity Thomas E. Bergler, 2014-11-27 Expert guidance on how to grow up in Christ. This book is a follow up to Thomas Bergler's acclaimed work The Juvenilization of American Christianity, which documents how church youth ministries over the past several decades have contributed to a process of adolescent spiritual traits becoming accepted and even celebrated by Christians of all ages. This juvenilization in the church is a real problem that must be addressed says Bergler and in his new book he addresses it head on Bergler's From Here to Maturity is an accessible guide for helping both individuals and whole faith communities to grow spiritually Bergler claims that spiritual maturity defined as basic competence in the Christian life is both desirable and attainable and he effectively presents a biblical theology of spiritual maturity identifying its traits from pertinent New Testament passages Adapting Dallas Willard's model of spiritual formation and applying it to congregational life Bergler offers a wealth of practical research based guidance as to how Christian leaders can effectively foster spiritual maturity in their congregations He also identifies six key faith sustaining factors and provides a system for evaluating a church's state of spiritual maturity and steps for improving it Ecumenically friendly From Here to Maturity will be useful to individuals and leaders from many different churches and theological traditions

The Good Soil Allen C. Hughes, 2021-03-19 The good soil of our life is generated through the actions and habits of discipleship Discipleship is the lifelong pursuit of learning to live a life under the guidance and care of God We can live a life where we are guided and led by the perfect Father We can experience the fruits of the good soil a joy that goes beyond our circumstances a peace that satisfies work that is meaningful and a love that abides Unfortunately in our culture the word discipleship has been misunderstood misapplied reduced and in some cases used to manipulate serious men and women who desire to walk faithfully with the living God The result is that many Christians live with an anemic understanding of discipleship which limits their relationship with God confuses their vocation and keeps most Christians frustrated and on the periphery of the full Christian life When discipleship is truly and fully engaged what follows is an abundant life from God full of gifts challenges meaning and direction This is the life I believe all Christians truly desire and I believe this book will help you move in that direction
