TikTok Self Help Trend Award Winning:

Producing Children Peter C. Kunze, Victoria Ford Smith, 2025-04-15 Producing Children imagines the possibility indeed the inevitability of a creative relation between children as producers and consumers by revising the long established hierarchical relation between adults and children. The chapters in this collection reveal that studying child produced culture complicates our received understandings of children's culture as culture by adults for children about children. They also underscore children's literature as a cultural phenomenon that moves across and beyond genres, forms and media. As a whole this collection reveals that attention to child produced culture invites dialogue and collaboration across fields and disciplines invested in the critical understanding of children as embodied beings and childhood as both a stage of development and discursive construct with social, political, economic and cultural dimensions and influence. With the ongoing vibrancy of childhood studies as a multidisciplinary area of inquiry, studies of child produced culture provide scholars with an exciting opportunity to complicate, enrich and expand theorization of childhood creativity, children's culture and even children themselves.

The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism Folker Hanusch, 2025-06-10 Taking stock of research in an area that has long been starved of scholarly attention, The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism brings together scholars from across journalism, communication and media studies to offer the first substantial volume of its kind in this dynamic field. This Handbook is divided into five major sections covering definitions, current trends, the relationship between lifestyle journalism and consumer culture, how lifestyle journalism interacts with matters of identity, emotion, politics and society, and future directions. Featuring 30 contributions from authors at the cutting edge of research around the world, each chapter provides an authoritative overview of key literature and debates and proposes a way forward for future scholarship. The Routledge Handbook of Lifestyle Journalism is an essential companion for advanced students and researchers of lifestyle journalism and related beats including food, fashion and travel writing.

All in Her Head Elizabeth Comen, 2024-02-13
Finalist for the 2025 PEN E.O. Wilson Literary Science Writing Award USA Today Bestseller All in Her Head accomplishes a remarkable feat of storytelling. By combining essential medical histories about women's bodies with all the narrative propulsion of a medical thriller, Comen has written a must-read, compelling and important book. Siddhartha Mukherjee, Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Emperor of All Maladies and The Song of the Cell, Wow! This book will upend everything you thought you knew about your body while empowering you to make better decisions moving forward. Through storytelling, extensive research and easy recommendations, Dr. Elizabeth Comen has given us all a priceless road map to reclaim our agency. Eve Rodsky, author of Fair Play, A surprising groundbreaking and fiercely entertaining medical history that is both a collective narrative of women's bodies and a call to action for a new conversation around women's health. For as long as medicine has been a practice, women's bodies have been treated like objects to be practiced on, examined and ignored, idealized and sexualized, shamed, subjugated, mutilated and dismissed. The history of women's healthcare is a story in which women themselves have too often been voiceless a narrative instead written from the perspective of men who styled themselves as authorities on the female of the species yet uninformed by women s own voices thoughts fears pain and experiences The result is a cultural and societal legacy that continues to shape the mis treatment and care of women While the modern age has seen significant advancements in the medical field the notion that female bodies are flawed inversions of the male ideal lingers on as do the pervasive societal stigmas and lingering ignorance that shape women s health and relationships with their own bodies Memorial Sloan Kettering oncologist and medical historian Dr Elizabeth Comen draws back the curtain on the collective medical history of women to reintroduce us to our whole bodies how they work the actual doctors and patients whose perspectives and experiences laid the foundation for today s medical thought and the many oversights that still remain unaddressed With a physician s knowledge and empathy Dr Comen follows the road map of the eleven organ systems to share unique and untold stories drawing upon medical texts and journals interviews with expert physicians as well as her own experience treating thousands of women Empowering women to better understand ourselves and advocate for care that prioritizes healthy and joyful lives for us and generations to come All in Her Head is written with humor wisdom and deep scientific and cultural insight Eye opening sometimes enraging yet always captivating this shared memoir of women s medical history is an essential contribution to a holistic understanding and much needed reclaiming of women s history and bodies

Enhancing Intergenerational Social Connections Using Shared Common Values Chandan, Harish Chandra,2025-11-07 In an increasingly fragmented and fast paced world strengthening connections between generations has become both a challenge and a necessity for today s world One powerful yet often overlooked way to bridge generational divides is through the recognition of shared common values such as shared likes and responsibilities common interests and community development These core principles transcend age and time offering a foundation upon which meaningful relationships can be built and sustained By focusing on unification this approach may help build a deeper understanding and renewed sense of belonging across generations Enhancing Intergenerational Social Connections Using Shared Common Values explores social connections as meaningful interaction between individuals from different generations within families communities and societies It explores how shared interests among generations promotes intergenerational social connections and offers opportunities for mentorship shared wisdom and a sense of belonging in communities Covering topics such as judicial systems social values and intergenerational solidarity this book is an excellent resource for sociologists academics researchers and scientists

Uncharted Territory Chris Dalla Riva,2025-11-13 This insightful and surprising history based on data and numbers will reframe everything you thought you knew about popular music over the last 6 decades TikTok for Sales Josué Matos, In the ever evolving digital landscape where trends shift at the speed of a click few platforms have reshaped the sales and marketing game quite like TikTok What initially seemed like a space for fun and creative videos has become a powerful tool for brands seeking authentic connections with their consumers Far from being a passing trend TikTok represents a revolution in how products and services are promoted and sold online. This is the second book in a series designed to explore the potential of social media platforms for sales. While the first volume Instagram for Sales Strategies to Convert Followers into Customers focused on a well established platform known for its visual and interactive appeal, this book dives into a dynamic and opportunity rich terrain. TikTok for Sales: Viral Strategies for Growth and Conversion is an essential guide for anyone looking to harness the viral power of TikTok, transforming creativity into real conversions. With over 150 million active users in the United States alone and a global user base exceeding 1 billion, TikTok is not just a social network but a global stage where brands can shine by telling their stories in engaging and innovative ways. Through trends, challenges, short videos, or live streams, TikTok offers endless possibilities for entrepreneurs of all sizes to stand out in today's competitive market. In this book, I've explored every aspect of the platform from setting up an attractive business profile to advanced sales strategies and performance analysis. Organized into 30 chapters, the content is tailored for both beginners and seasoned professionals, providing valuable and practical insights. You'll learn how to navigate TikTok's algorithm, create engaging content, leverage features like TikTok Shopping and hashtags, and build partnerships with creators to maximize your sales. As a digital marketing professional inspired by my international journey, I bring a global perspective to this work. My name is Josu Matos, author of over 50 books including Rich Uncle Poor Nephews and The Art of Reinvention. With a decade of experience in digital platforms and a Bachelor's degree in Advertising, Marketing, and Communications underway, I have dedicated my career to helping entrepreneurs succeed in the digital world. My travels across Northern Ireland, Canada, and the United States have broadened my outlook and enabled me to develop innovative strategies which I share with you in this book. Get ready to discover how to turn creativity into conversions, trends into sales, and followers into loyal customers. Welcome to a new era of sales on TikTok. Together, let's explore this dynamic platform and take your business to the next level.
