91092 91093 The Age of Choice Sophia Rosenfeld,2025-02-04 A history of the rise of personal choice in the modern world and how it became equated with freedom Taking readers from the seventeenth century to today Rosenfeld describes how the early modern world witnessed the simultaneous rise of shopping as an activity and religious freedom as a matter of being able to pick one s convictions Roe V. Wade N. E. H. Hull,Peter Charles Hoffer,2001 The issue of abortion has sharply divided America The bitter debate over Roe v Wade in the courts legislatures press and streets has grown ever more ferocious since the Supreme Court s landmark decision in 1973 For years pro choicers have applauded Roe as a guarantee of women s rights while pro lifers have condemned it as the work of an activist and atheistic Court Now it looms at the centre of a growing political storm as a new president and old Court and a divided Congress reconsider Roe s status in the wake of the controversial 2000 elections Feminist Rhetorical Theories Karen A. Foss,Sonja K. Foss,Cindy L. Griffin,1999-03-02 Providing fully developed rhetorical theories from feminist perspectives this book offers coherent systematic overviews of complex large bodies of work and ideas relevant to rhetoric and communication The book presents theories developed from the work of nine feminist theorists each from diverse standpoints demonstrating the diversity of both feminism and feminist rhetorical theories Chris Kramarae Bell Hooks Gloria Anzaldua Mary Daly Starhawk Paula Gunn Allen Trinh T Minh ha Sally Miller Gearhart and Sonia Johnson The resulting theories differ substantially from traditional rhetorical theories and will encourage scholars to rethink many traditional rhetorical constructs     Abortion Marie Costa,1991     Readings on the Rhetoric of Social Protest Charles E. Wood,Richard B. Gregg,1995 Growing out of a six year process of reflection deliberation and writing and involving over 100 members of the discipline the chapters comprising this book indentify and launch reflection about primary questions that must be engaged by research and pedagogy if the field of speech communication is to remain vital in academe and the social world Four questions were identified as fundamental to future research and teaching which reflect the heritage of speech communication and involve the discipline in vigorous dialogue about consequential intellectual and cultural issues They are what do technological developments and changes in the mission and means of communication imply for future teaching and scholarship on speech communication what and whose purposes within and beyond the field do definitions of speech communication serve how does increasing interest in cultural diversity affect research and teaching in speech communication and what relationships exist among communication power and order and how should these issues individually and in tandem be reflected in scholarship and teaching A group of chapters is devoted to exploring each of these questions In recognising what is shared by scholars and teachers in diverse areas and in calling attention to the four issues that will become increasingly prominent in the cultural landscape the chapters spotlight themes and foci germane to the field s health and identity in the years ahead
