Permission to Feel Marc Brackett, Ph.D.,2020-08-04 The mental well being of children and adults is shockingly poor Marc Brackett author of Permission to Feel knows why And he knows what we can do We have a crisis on our hands and its victims are our children Marc Brackett is a professor in Yale University s Child Study Center and founding director of the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence In his 25 years as an emotion scientist he has developed a remarkably effective plan to improve the lives of children and adults a blueprint for understanding our emotions and using them wisely so that they help rather than hinder our success and well being The core of his approach is a legacy from his childhood from an astute uncle who gave him permission to feel He was the first adult who managed to see Marc listen to him and recognize the suffering bullying and abuse he d endured And that was the beginning of Marc's awareness that what he was going through was temporary. He wasn't alone; he wasn't stuck on a timeline and he wasn't wrong to feel scared, isolated, and angry. Now, best of all, he could do something about it. In the decades since Marc has led large research teams and raised tens of millions of dollars to investigate the roots of emotional well-being. His prescription for healthy children and their parents, teachers, and schools is a system called RULER, a high-impact and fast-effect approach to understanding and mastering emotions that has already transformed the thousands of schools that have adopted it.
