Blueprints Dan Bolin, 2021-11-15 Christian camping is more than a nice but superfluous add on to our spiritual lives God designed the core elements of time away with others in creation to nurture our relationship with Him The Bible provides the blueprints camps retreats conferences and adventure ministries need to build effective programs And God's word explains why each of us will benefit from outdoor ministries God commanded the Children of Israel to meet with Him three times each year These national festivals included five central elements change of location extended time away interaction with family and friends engagement with creation and refocusing on God New surroundings provide fresh vantage points from which to evaluate our lives Everyone needs time away to escape the pressures and routines of life We long for opportunities to reconnect with those we love The more urbanized we become the more we need immersion into God's creation to hear his voice and be amazed by his glory Times of intentional spiritual focus are crucial as we seek to know love worship and serve God Today during this era of urbanization and intensity we need moments of refreshment and renewal more than ever

The Nature of Church Camp Christopher W. Anderson, 2023-12-18 The Nature of Church Camp An Environmental History of Outdoor Ministry 1945 1980 by Christopher W Anderson explores the mid twentieth century history of religious camps and retreat centers to provide new insights into the history of environmentalism in the United States Ecumenical Protestantism and the ecology movement both changed the calculus of American morality after World War II Through archival material case study visits and oral histories Anderson finds that these institutions often reacted to ecological critiques with temperate but gradual reforms However camps and outdoor ministries by virtue of their natural settings and sizable acreage soon provided a new way to explore the history of spirituality and ecology moving away from the conference campus and using nostalgia for the frontier instead to make arguments about the meaning of the American nation and the value of democracy This new way of thinking was reflected throughout the camps and enthusiastically endorsed decentralized small group camping By examining the conduct of church camps and conferences before during and after the ecological era Anderson shows how environmental stewardship became the dominant paradigm for Protestant environmentalism why that is a flawed and fractious model and why it has stalled The Living Church ,1962 The Christian Century ,1916 Christianity Today ,1983 Preachers of Today Batsell Barrett Baxter,Matt Norvel Young,1952 The Christian Advocate ,1927 The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1906 Christian Nation ,1927 The Christian Messenger ,1906 State of New York Supreme Court , Christian Writers' Market Guide , 1995-1996 Sally E.
