"This book makes an exceptionally important contribution—showing how one can integrate Christ-centered counseling with the requirements of managed care and professional psychology at the start of the 21st century. I urge every practicing Christian counselor to read this book and every Christian counseling graduate program to integrate it into their curriculum."

—Henry A. Virkler, Ph.D.
Professor of Psychology, Palm Beach Atlantic College

"My professional training and Christian experience did not help me understand the spiritual and supernatural aspects of emotional and mental dysfunction. I am thankful to God for using Neil Anderson to teach me, and for allowing me to apply and share the truth in my life and in the lives of my family and others. I recommend Christ-Centered Therapy to caregivers and others. This book will address the needs of the whole person and provide balanced options for clients to find wholeness and resolution."

—George A. Harns, M.D., FACP
Director Emeritus and former Chief Administrative Officer, The University of Texas Health Center at Tyler

"This gold mine contains detailed and specific help for any pastor, counselor, or seeker who has desired Christ in their counseling experience or practice. It is also the most practical help I have seen for anyone who has tried to maintain both Christian care and integrity."

—Dr. E. James Wilder
Director of Shepherd's House in Van Nuys, CA, Author of The Stages of a Man's Life

"We want to help Christian counselors deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ, improve their clinical skills, [and] practice with freedom in the context of a biblical worldview."

—The Authors

Depending on whom you ask, the term Christian counseling can mean anything from secular psychology practiced by a Christian to biblical counseling that completely shuns psychological insights. Christ-Centered Therapy thoroughly integrates psychology and practical theology. A book written by experts from both fields, it utilizes the contributions of science in an uncompromisingly biblical framework. Here at last is a powerful resource to help you—pastor, counselor, or spiritual adviser—understand the complex problems of people and address them with the wisdom of God's Word and the power of his Spirit.

Insightful and practical, Christ-Centered Therapy unites the wisdom and expertise of pastoral theologian and best-selling author Dr. Neil Anderson and professional Christian counselors Dr. Terry and Julianne Zuehlke. The first part of the book equips you with an understanding of the different issues involved in integrating theology and psychology. The second part helps you turn theory into practical application. You'll also find appendices that offer personal testimonies, provide professional forms, discuss the role of psychiatry in managed care, and present the Steps to Freedom in Christ.

Neil T. Anderson, D.Min., Ed.D., M.Div., B.S.E.E., M.A.C.E., is the best-selling author of Victory Over the Darkness and The Bondage Breaker and 20 other books. The president of Freedom in Christ Ministries and the author of a daily devotional on www.crosswalk.com, he lives in Castle Rock, Colorado, with his wife, Joanne.

Igbino, 1997-06 Christ Centered Reality Therapy for the 21st Century Tom Barnette, 2023-12-19 Dr William Glasser expresses there is a real need for psychological insight His premise was simply to expect human normality even in the presence of abnormality A key concept of Reality Therapy is the rejection of irresponsible abnormal behavior without rejecting the person A key counseling concept in CCRT is to strengthen and build a counseling relationship even amid counseling conflict which challenges the client's irresponsible behavior CCRT treatment plans should challenge the client's bad behavior objectively and overtly Many counseling modalities avoid challenges thus settling for a revolving door of problems for the client What is real normal The center point for man is God and He expresses this in His Word the 66 books of the Bible This provides the absolute unlimited baseline for normal God being perfect He is the absolute ground zero for normal Thus anything outside of God and His perfection is abnormal This includes you and me Next you apply the morals and ethics of Christianity as defined in the Bible The integration of the concept of normal is focusing on man's mind body and spirit Applying these fundamental principles to Reality Therapy the new concept is reformulated into Christ Centered Reality Therapy This concept is utterly rejected by the world system The counseling world today has become a pseudo passive anything goes politically correct relativistic culture asking What is normal Christ Centered Reality Therapy utilizes a full range of counseling techniques and introduces a new set of technical tools and principles CCRT is a body of work which agrees with the foundational theory of Reality Therapy and applies the absolutes of the Gospel of Jesus Christ Handbook for Christ-Centered Substance Abuse and Addiction Counselors Michael Belzman, Ph.D., MDAAC, MRAS, Michael Belzman, 2010-09 Dr Michael Belzman is the founder of the Association of Christian Alcohol Drug Counselors ACADC An educator counselor and pastor he is also a speaker at congressional hearings warning law makers against making laws that exclude Faith Based counselors from participation in the professional arena or infringe upon their religious freedom ACADC is the only Christ centered counselor certification organization authorized by any state government ACADC Institute trains their students biblically so they can provide addiction counseling to Christians in need of the biblical rather than secular options Few thought it possible that a Christ centered certification board could exist in today's postmodern society yet ACADC was written by the hand of God into the California Code of Regulations opening a door that no man could close From a background of teaching psychology at secular universities and a false belief in human solutions to the problems of the soul Dr Belzman surrendered his life to Christ in 1980 By nurturing a personal relationship with Him through prayer and Bible study he found that God's life principles and promises changed his life in a way that psychology or prescribed drugs could not do He saw first hand how God's power not only overcomes deep addiction but can direct the decisions of kings Dr Belzman pastors ACADC Christian Fellowship founded on the notion that healing of the soul best takes place in the context of Christ

Hesselgrave,2002-01-08 Christians are being called upon increasingly to care counsel and cure across cultural boundaries writes the author Of course foreign missionaries counsel people from other cultures but so do many pastors particularly those in urban settings Because Christian counseling theory presupposes that counselor and counselee share the same culture the insights of this discipline must be brought together meaningfully with the cross cultural perspectives of missiology Counseling Cross Culturally pioneers this new field After surveying approaches to counseling in the West and those in the non Western world the author develops a theory of Christian cross cultural counseling The final part consistent with the author s broad view of counseling discusses counseling concerned with the well being of people Christian conversion spiritual growth and development of a Christian life style and Christian service Numerous case studies drawn from a variety of cultures provide realistic examples of the questions that counselors will encounter A psychologist who trains Christian workers for cross cultural service describes this book as a helpful thoughtful study of complex issues surrounding counseling It is extremely valuable to expose any missionary candidate to this type of book It broadens awareness to cross cultural issues and touches on common problems of missionary counselors Counseling Cross Culturally is an admirable attempt to integrate a conservative evangelical theology with the complexities of culture and life      Discipleship Counseling Dr. Neil T.
