Make / Believe John Hartley,2025-01-23 This book illustrates that mediated popular culture and science based knowledge systems entangled and compromised as both have become are still a robust crucible for system change for the future when they combine forces Planetary crises require responses from everyone This means that collective action is not simply a scientific or political problem It is a problem of culture and media But modern politics journalism and science were not designed for global climate action They've divided humans into competitive and often hostile we and they groups Identity news and knowledge are all weaponized Culture makes groups groups make knowledge and knowledge makes enemies What can be done to prevent global conflict and the drift to war Make Believe turns to popular culture and social media to argue for an alternative storyline While the Great Powers are making new enemies emergent classes led by children are using planetary connectivity to make new worlds A digital planet generates new kinds of strategic stories for pan human action based on difference intersectionality and cooperation for a sustainable Earth system Make Believe shows how alternatives to the Great Game of global contestation are gathering strength in unlikely places among women children lifestyle and pop culture Popular digital media literacy is now a prerequisite for the remediation of the planet AI Business for Everyone Michael T. left to pay for college she's left to navigate a world that's colder and crueler than she ever imagined. Alone, broke and with nowhere to turn, April's only hope comes in the form of a job at an upscale country club arranged by a sorority sister. But when a member crosses a line and touches her inappropriately, she's fired without a second thought. Betrayed and humiliated, she's forced to face the harsh reality of her new life. Enter Nigel Conroy, an enigmatic billionaire who seems darkly dangerous. He's heard of April's plight and is hell bent on making the country club pay. He'll destroy them with the ruthless precision of someone who has nothing to lose. But as his obsession with her grows, April realizes that Nigel's power isn't just in his wealth, but in the raw magnetic way he sees through her into the depths of her vulnerability and desires. April wants to resist. She wants to keep her independence, but the heat between them is undeniable. In Nigel, she might just find something she's been craving all along: passion, danger, and the chance to lose herself in something far more intoxicating than revenge.
