Practical Marketing for the Academic Library Stephanie Espinoza Villamor, Kimberly Shotick, 2022-05-24 This down to earth book offers practical marketing solutions for reaching students faculty and administration in community college and university libraries based on real world examples of team based communication and practice. In an age in which federal funding for libraries is being cut libraries of every size and type must prove their value. Practical Marketing for the Academic Library offers academic librarians approachable methods for marketing to students faculty and administration and it also inspires them to attempt new structures for marketing initiatives including encouraging existing staff to form teams with wide ranges of skills. Librarians from all academic libraries including at community colleges can incorporate these ideas even when budgets are tight and staff is limited. While there are many books on library marketing few specifically cover the diversity within academic institutions and the student body as well as how to target marketing to faculty and administrations. Villamor and Shotick approach library marketing from diverse perspectives and teach readers how to increase student engagement assess library programs and connect library marketing to the goals of the overall institution. Emily and the Rat Dave Musson, 2025-09-25 There's a rat in room 388. Unfortunately it's not the type that pest control can deal with. This rat is a paying guest at the Clifton Hotel in Kingsworth which means the only person who can deal with him is Emily the hotel's manager. Frankly the guest from hell is the last thing she needs right now. But as a nightmare week unfolds the rat in room 388 is only the start of Emily's problems. Aside from the pink tails scampering feet and bad dreams Emily realises she might also have discovered something much more terrifying hiding in the window at her place of work. Also includes the bonus stories You're Melting and Bad Dream.
