Deleuze and Guattari Explained Rohit Dalvi, 2015-10 This introduction to the French writers Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari explains the thought of these critics humorists sociologists philosophers and historians Along with radical writers like the Situationists Foucault and others Deleuze and Guattari stress the need to see how what are taken to be natural relations are ultimately the res

Practice as Research Estelle Barrett, Barbara Bolt, 2014-06-10 Practice led research is a burgeoning area across the creative arts with studio informed doctorates frequently favoured over traditional approaches to research Practice as Research Approaches to Creative Arts Enquiry is specifically designed as a training tool and is structured on the model used by most research programmes A comprehensive introduction lays out the book's framework and individual chapters provide concrete examples of studio based research in art film and video creative writing and dance Comprehensive in its approach the volume draws on thinkers including Deleuze Bourdieu and Heidegger in its examination of the relationship between practice and theory demonstrating how practice can operate as a valid alternative mode of enquiry to traditional scholarship

Coherence in New Music: Experience, Aesthetics, Analysis Mark Hutchinson, 2016-06-10 What does it mean to talk about musical coherence at the end of a century characterised by fragmentation and discontinuity How can the diverse influences which stand behind the works of many late twentieth century composers be reconciled with the singular immediacy of the experiences that they can create How might an awareness of the distinctive ways in which these experiences are generated and controlled affect the way we listen to reflect upon and write about this music Mark Hutchinson outlines a novel concept of coherence within Western art music from the 1980s to the turn of the millennium as a means of understanding the work of a number of contemporary composers including Thomas Ad s Kaija Saariaho T ru Takemitsu and Gy rgy Kurt g whose music cannot be fitted easily into a particular compositional school or analytical framework Coherence is understood as a multi layered phenomenon experienced above all in the act of listening but reliant upon a variety of other aspects of musical experience including compositional statements analysis and connections of aesthetic as well as listeners own imaginative conceptualisations Accordingly the approach taken here is similarly multi faceted close analytical readings of a number of specific works are combined with insights drawn from philosophy and aesthetics music perception and critical theory with a particular openness to novel metaphorical presentations of basic musical ideas about form language and time

Meaning Making in Early Childhood Research Jeanne Marie Iorio, Will Parnell, 2017-12-12 Meaning Making in Early Childhood Research asks readers to rethink research in early childhood education through qualitative research practices reflective of arts based pedagogies This collection explores how educators and researchers can move toward practices of meaning making in early childhood education The text's narrative style provides an intimate portrait of engaging in research that challenges assumptions and thinking in a variety of international contexts and each chapter offers a way to engage in meaning making based on the experiences of young children their families and educators      Third Sector Organisations and Organising Wendy Earles, Robyn Lynn, 2012-08 Over the past few decades there has been considerable transformation of the organisational arrangements for public service provision and advocacy across most Western democracies not least in Australia Waves of ideologically driven reforms have reshaped organisations ways of organising and systems particularly those in the third sector Each wave has produced specific synergies and contradictions that contribute to the need for further reshaping As artefacts local organisations ways of organising and systems hold historic meaning that can guide practitioners as they seek to understand past change transverse existing landscapes question the utility and soundness of current meaning and seek to create new landscapes that respond to different value sets The studies present here were undertaken by the authors over two decades in partnership with local practitioners to respond to their expressed need for new maps and compasses to understand and transverse the rapidly changing organisational landscapes in which they practice The authors draw on practitioners lived experiences of micro change in particular sites to construct synthesised stories develop organisational typologies articulate principles and logics of organising and construct paradigmatic maps      Living Otherwise Duncan P. Mercieca, 2013-02-11 One of the classroom assistants Irene decided to tell Ruth a story around the giving of invitations for her birthday party while she was feeding her Mummy Sylvia was going to give a big party to celebrate Ruth s birthday and a number of guests were to be invited amongst them the classroom staff At this point Irene started asking Ruth whether she wanted to invite Duncan Ruth signed no Irene repeated verbally Ruth s sign No then shall we invite Jasmine No again Shall we invite Irene No also Shall we invite Ritienne Again a negative answer Shall we invite Joanne Yes Irene said you only want Joanne at your party And Ruth put her hand in front of her chest and laughed moving her right leg in the air an action which she normally does when enjoying herself The teaching staff were suddenly involved and very interested in this play and asked Irene to go through the story with Ruth all over again They suggested that this time Irene should change the sequence of their names recounted to Ruth And so she did But once more Ruth only invited Joanne for her birthday party The whole process was repeated several times still with Joanne being the only person chosen from the school staff The teaching staff now was participating and commenting on Ruth s responses They tried to reason with Ruth in vain and persuade her in various ways to change her mind Their arguments were similar to the following You say no to Jasmine but she is the one who escorts you home everyday now is that fair And Duncan who loves you so much and spends so much time with you don t you want to invite him to your party The staff members became concerned at Ruth s refusals and not a little offended There were moments when Joanne was trying to excuse herself and explain why she thought that Ruth would choose her She tried to convince the others that Ruth was only joking that in reality she does want to invite all of them p 140 This book addresses the question of agency that children with profound and multiple learning disabilities PMLD have in educational contexts When children have such severe impairment the idea of their agency often does not cross the mind of adults around them However this book draws upon the work of Jacques Derrida

Felix Guattari and Gilles Deleuze in relation to nine stories on engaging with children with PMLD showing to readers the profound influence that children have upon the lives and actions

The Archaeology of Verbal and Nonverbal Meaning Paolo Brusasco, 2007 A major argument of this book is that nonverbal meaning plays a fundamental role in the functioning of human societies thus rejecting the predominance of textual meaning and ethnocentric Eurocentric models currently employed in the interpretation of past behaviour and architecture By using the unique evidence from Mesopotamian domestic space where both house layouts and family archives were recovered as well as ethnographies from modern Near Eastern societies Paolo Brusasco investigates how verbal and nonverbal meaning interrelate in the archaeological past In line with Peirce Wittgenstein and Derrida as well as recent research in corporeal semantics and social psychology the book claims that nonverbal spatial signs have a profound bearing on ancient textual meanings Moreover through the evidence of house clay models house projects actual houses and archives the author shows how different semiotic systems may produce alternative perspectives of the world while the linguistic elaborative power of processing nonverbal signs is also explored This book contributes to understanding how we should critically use social techniques and ethnographic analogy to interpret the archaeological past and it will be a vital resource for all those interested in the interaction between language and the material world

A Structural Analysis of Small Groups Susan Long, 1992

Deleuze and Guattari Ronald Bogue, 2008-03-07 The philosopher Giles Deleuze and the psychoanalyst and political activist Felix Guattari have been recognised as among the most important intellectual figures of their generation This is the first book length study of their works in English one that provides an overview of their thought and of its bearing on the central issues of contemporary literary criticism and theory From Deleuze's philosophy of difference to Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy of schizoanalytic desire this study traces the ideas of the two writers across a wide range of disciplines from psychoanalysis and Marxist politics to semiotics aesthetics and linguistics Professor Bogue provides lucid readings accessible to specialist and non specialist alike of several major works Deleuze's Nietzsche and Philosophy 1962 Difference and Reception 1968 and Deleuze and Guattari's Anti Oedipus 1972 and A Thousand Plateaus 1980 Besides elucidating the basic structure of Deleuze and Guattari's often difficult thought with its complex and often puzzling array of terms this study also shows how theory influences critical practice in their analyses of the fiction of Proust Sacher Masoch and Kafka

Deleuze and Guattari Ronald Bogue, 2008-03-07 The philosopher Giles Deleuze and the psychoanalyst and political activist Felix Guattari have been recognised as among the most important intellectual figures of their generation This is the first book length study of their works in English one that provides an overview of their thought and of its bearing on the central issues of contemporary literary criticism and theory From Deleuze's philosophy of difference to Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy of schizoanalytic desire this study traces the ideas of the two writers across a wide range of disciplines from psychoanalysis and Marxist politics to semiotics aesthetics and linguistics Professor Bogue provides lucid readings accessible to specialist and non specialist alike of several major works Deleuze's Nietzsche and Philosophy 1962 Difference and Reception 1968 and Deleuze and Guattari's Anti Oedipus 1972 and A Thousand Plateaus 1980 Besides elucidating the basic structure of Deleuze and Guattari's often difficult thought with its complex and often puzzling array of terms this study also shows how theory influences critical practice in their analyses of the fiction of Proust Sacher Masoch and Kafka

Morphogenesis and Individuation Alessandro Sarti, Federico Montanari, Francesco Galofaro, 2014-10-09 This contributed volume aims to reconsider the concept of individuation clarifying its articulation with respect to contemporary problems in perceptual neural developmental semiotic and social morphogenesis The authors approach the ontogenetical issue by taking into account the morphogenetic process involving the concept of individuation proposed by Gilbert Simondon and Gilles Deleuze The target audience primarily comprises experts in the field but the book may also be beneficial for graduate students The challenge of the genesis and constitution of units has always been at the center of philosophical and scientific research This ontogenetical issue is common to every discipline but it is articulated in different ways in phenomenology of perception the constitution of perceptual units is at the base of gestalt field theories in theoretical neuroscience synchronized neural assemblies are considered as correlates of conscious processes in developmental embryogenesis the constitution of organs is the principle outcome of morphodynamic evolution while in social morphogenesis the constitution of coherent units is common to segmentary gerarchic and functional differentiation

The Idea of a Living Spirit Paul Colilli, 1997 Colilli sets out his theory of poetic logic through an analysis of works by a range of thinkers and writers that include Paolo Valesio Franco Rella Giorgio Agamben Martin Heidegger Carl Jung Giambattista Vico and Giordano Bruno Their writings offer a strong counter argument to the mechanistic and materialistic perspectives of postmodern science and philosophy
