Criticorum Henry's Exposition gives the result of a critical account of the original as of his time with practical application. It was considered sensible and stylish a commentary for devotional purposes. Famous evangelical Protestant preachers such as George Whitefield and Charles Spurgeon used and heartily commended the work with Whitefield reading it through four times the last time on his knees. Spurgeon stated Every minister ought to read it entirely and carefully through once at least. Perhaps his best known quotation is about the relationship between men and women from the story of the creation of Eve in the Book of Genesis the woman was made of a rib out of the side of Adam not made out of his head to rule over him nor out of his feet to be trampled upon by him but out of his side to be equal with him under his arm to be protected and near his heart to be beloved.

1 John: Bible Commentary from Matthew Henry Matthew Henry, 2017-02-16 We invite you to study 1 John with us alongside Matthew Henry. Matthew Henry 1662-1714 was a Nonconformist minister and author who was born in Wales but spent much of his life in England. Henry's commentaries are primarily exegetical dealing with the scripture text as presented with his prime intention being explanation for practical and devotional purposes. Henry's Exposition gives the result of a critical account of the original as of his time with practical application. It was considered sensible and stylish a commentary for devotional purposes.
