What is the phonics screening check?

The phonics screening check is a test that children take at the end of Year 1. It is designed to assess their phonics skills. The test consists of two parts. The first part is a listening test where children hear a word and have to say it. The second part is a reading test where children have to read a word. The test is designed to assess children's ability to identify and blend sounds.

The phonics screening check is an important part of the Year 1 curriculum. It helps teachers to identify children who may need extra support with their phonics skills. It also helps children to understand how words are made and how they are written. This helps them to read and write more confidently.
